New Deal

1964 — 1965

Foreword

As the year draws to a close, we look back with pleasure upon the events that have filled our cup of memory to overflowing. It has been the goal of the Roar Staff to capture the best and most outstanding of these memories between the covers of this book. Each department of our school strives for perfection, and it is this worthy goal that we here salute.

We hope we have succeeded in our endeavor to present a good annual to you, the students of New Deal. With the sincere wish that each of you will find among these pages something special - something you will remember for a long, long time - we give you the 1965 Roar.

In Memoriam

MR. ERVIN HANCOCK

We, the members of the New Deal Yearbook Staff, respectfully dedicate the 1965 edition of the "Roar" to the memory of our beloved friend and supervisor, Mr. E. E. Hancock. His unflinching interest in the welfare and future of each individual has endeared him to the entire student body. We mourn the loss of a dear and wise counselor.

Administration

Over this desk passes the business of New Deal Independent School. From here the Superintendent administers policies and exercises authority. In this room the Board of Education meets to decide issues concerning the school. This desk is the core of New Deal's administration.

Board of Education

GLEN WAGES
Vice President

V. L. PEEPLES
Secretary

BOBBY HENDERSON
President

E. C. PARRISH

New Deal's Board of Education consists of seven men who are elected by the school district voters. Bobby Henderson is president of the present board which is made up of area farmers.

A school board is responsible for school policy. It approves school organizations, contracts school employees, and adopts salary schedules.

New Deal should be proud of its Board of Education and of the worthwhile effort it has displayed in making New Deal a "top-rated" school.

PAUL CROSNOE, JR.

In the above picture, Paul Crosnoe, Jr. and Gene Parrish discuss the extension of the west football stands. Mr. James and Bobby Henderson confer on the adoption of new textbooks. These are typical issues of a board meeting.

PETE EDWARDS

TONY RIEKEN

MRS. BUMPASS

Tax Assessor — Collector Serves School 12 Years

Mrs. Opal Bumpass has served in her present position of tax assessor-collector at New Deal for 12 years.

She is a long-time resident of this community. Mrs. Bumpass has had two daughters and a son, all graduates from New Deal. She currently has two grandchildren attending here.

To Mrs. Bumpass is extended a salute for a job well done.

School Supervisor Is Students' Friend

MR. HANCOCK

Mr. Hancock is serving his third year at New Deal. He is a "co-operative" supervisor for this school and Roosevelt.

Mr. Hancock devotes a great deal of time to counseling students. He also administers aptitude and achievement tests.

Students admire Mr. Hancock for his warm friendliness and sound advice.

New Deal Is Accredited

This year New Deal was visited by an accreditation committee from Austin composed of W. H. Boehl, R. D. Bramlet, and J. R. Wynn. These men checked records and the daily average attendance. The main purpose of this examination was the hiring of an extra teacher next year.

Our Administrators

MR. DALTON L. JAMES

Mr. James is shown at the right with Mrs. Opal Bumpass, Mrs. James, and New Deal's own Santa Claus, Bob Bonner. It was Mr. James' idea to have Santa visit each school room during the Christmas parties. He really enjoys Christmas holidays. Mr. James' birthday is December 24.

The smooth operation of the New Deal Independent School District is the responsibility of Mr. Dalton L. James, our superintendent of schools. Mr. James, who has been associated with the New Deal Schools for thirteen years, is considered one of the top administrators in this area. In spite of his crowded schedule, he can always find time to help any student or teacher when help is needed. Mr. James' outstanding characteristic is his good sense of humor and his enjoyment of a joke.

Are Progressive

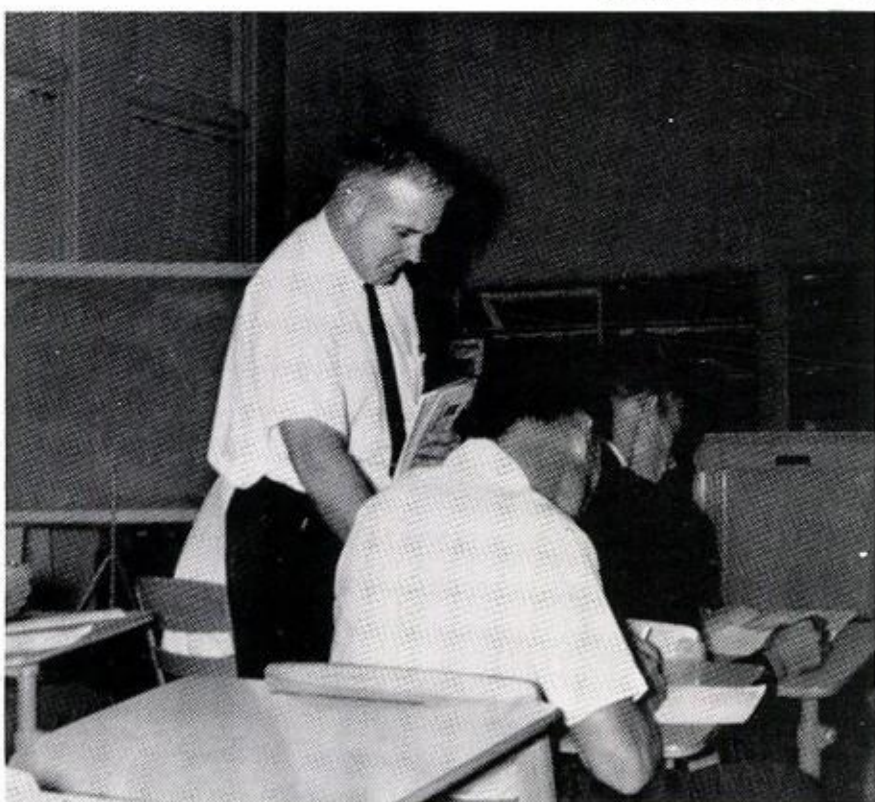

You can turn any corner, glance down any corridor and find our friend Mr. Wills. There is no problem too small for him to listen quietly to and diagnose the trouble. If he does not have the solution, you always walk away with the feeling that there's someone who cares!

His personality reaches into the heart of each student. To know Mr. Wills is to love and respect him as a friend and as principal of New Deal High School

Mr. Bob Wills came to N.D.H.S. in 1960. He is well equipped for his tremendous job as principal because he has experienced almost all the problems that a teacher or principal has, for he has been both.

MR. BOB WILLS

Mr. Wills directs an In-Service meeting of the teachers. This is one of the many tasks assigned to a principal.

Elementary Principal

MR. BOB CROOKS

Though this was his first year at New Deal, Mr. Crooks has been found a capable principal and teacher. In his many duties, he has demonstrated those qualities which are most desirable in elementary principals. Many days he could be found in his office after other teachers had gone home. His warm hearted concern for the students' welfare and his fair unyielding system of discipline has made him a beloved and admired man within the New Deal school system.

Mr. Crooks attended West Texas State University and Southern Methodist University. He has coached for several years and has had two state track teams.

Mr. Crooks and his wife have two children, both girls.

Mr. Crooks is shown at the right in his office. The stack of papers in the work-basket is typical of the work he faces each day.

Faculty

The Faculty of New Deal School scores high in imparting knowledge to the students. Their footprints lead the way to success and wisdom. In their efforts to instill a passion for learning in students, they raise learning above an everyday, classroom matter.

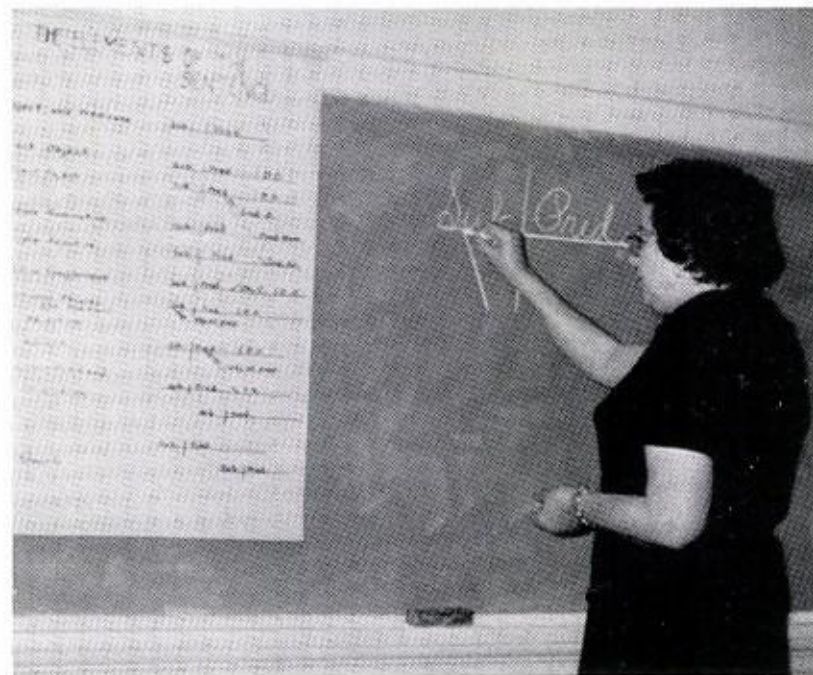

MRS. BEATRICE CROMER

English: The Backbone of Education

Writing and speaking the English language correctly are the two goals of Mrs. Cromer's English students. Mrs. Cromer is the person responsible for teaching English at N.D.H.S. She helps each class realize the importance of English.

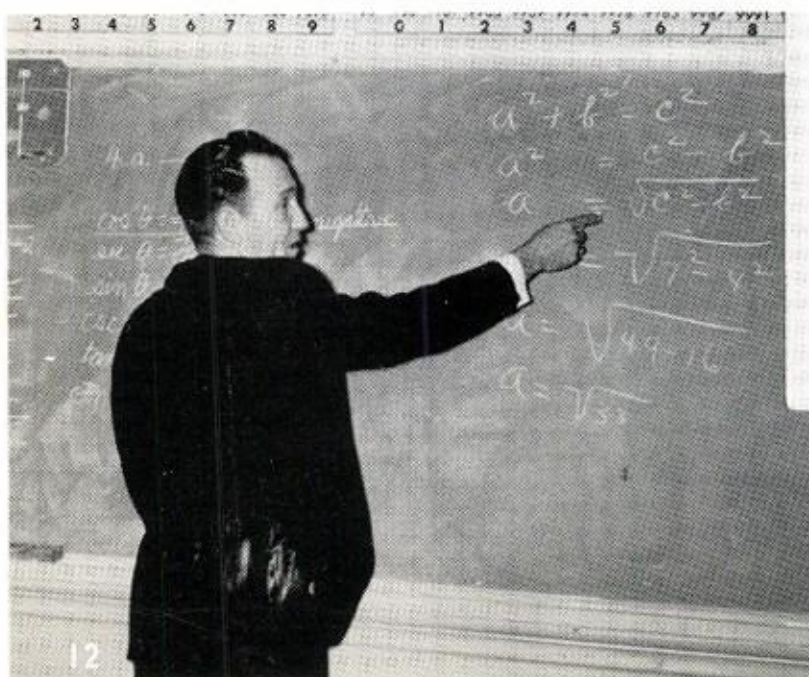

Mrs. Cromer has been at New Deal for the past nine years. She received a Bachelor's Degree at Texas Tech. Mrs. Cromer has been the "Roar" sponsor for eight years. She has sponsored several graduating classes and other lower classes. Mrs. Cromer has been accused of "bleeding themes to death". She has proved herself capable of teaching English at New Deal.

Mrs. Cromer shows the students the proper way to diagram sentences.

Mathematics: Old Subject ... New Method

Mr. Wood displays the proper method of working a routine Algebra II problem.

Learning becomes an easy process thanks to Mr. Charles Wood. Organized discussions and explanations are a part of every day's math classes at New Deal High School. Capability and a willingness to help the students to understand difficult problems makes Mr. Wood an ideal teacher.

His cheerful and friendly personality makes him well-liked by all of the students both in and out of class. The seniors have found him to be an excellent sponsor.

MR. CHARLES WOOD

MR. VAUGHN GINN

Vocational Agriculture Prepares Future Farmers

Mr. Vaughn Ginn is the Vocational Agriculture teacher at N.D.H.S. Mr. Ginn graduated from Texas Tech with a Bachelor's of Science Degree. He has taught at New Deal for the past three years.

The agriculture classes have many projects. They painted the new addition to the football stands on the west side, put up a fence around the new track field, and, in general, made themselves useful.

The agricultural classes distinguished themselves in judging events this year. Parliamentary procedure is also stressed by the boys, under the guidance of Mr. Ginn.

Homemakers Lead the Future

Homemaker classes at N. D. H. S. are supervised by Mrs. Judy Lewis. Mrs. Lewis is in her second year of teaching at New Deal. She has created new interest in her homemaking girls and widened their knowledge.

Many interesting and amusing experiences brighten Mrs. Lewis' day in the homemaking department. She taught the girls to make Kleenex roses, sew a blouse together wrong side out, and clean paint out of their hair.

Under the leadership of Mrs. Lewis, the Homemaking III class redecorated the bedroom in the department and made lined woolen suits. Other activities taught by Mrs. Lewis are cooking, and general sewing fundamentals in the Homemaking I and II classes.

MRS. JUDY LEWIS

Scientific Studies at NDHS

Add Interest to School Life

Mr. David Hamm heads the science department at N. D. H. S. His biological studies have proved quite interesting for his students. These students have discovered new worlds through the microscope. Mr. Hamm has created an enthusiasm for learning in each of his classes. He is planning to graduate from Texas Tech in August.

He was recently married.

Experiments and "operations" in the lab are a big part in Mr. Hamm's teaching process.

Mr. Hamm's classes have studied all phases of science, some of these being the classes of animals and plants and human anatomy.

MR. DAVID HAMM

Commercial Classes Prepare for the Future

Mrs. James heads our commercial department at New Deal High. She instructs the students in typing and bookkeeping. Mrs. James also takes care of the school bookkeeping and keeps record of the lunch-room tickets.

MRS. DALTON JAMES

Mrs. James' typing students are finally beginning to learn the keyboard after some nine months of the course. Seriously, Mrs. James has taught the students much about the uses of the typewriter. In the interscholastic league both the first and third places in the typewriting event were won.

The bookkeeping class has done both interesting and educational projects. They became bookkeepers for "make-believe" companies and kept the records as though they were employed there.

Mrs. James is easy to get along with and adds life to the school activities.

New Coach . . . New Ideas

Mr. Sam Mayo has started a favorable record in his first year of coaching at New Deal. The football record improved over the previous season but was still plagued with injuries. Coach Mayo's basketball girls' team came out third in district play.

Mr. Mayo received his degree from Eastern New Mexico University. He is married and has three young children.

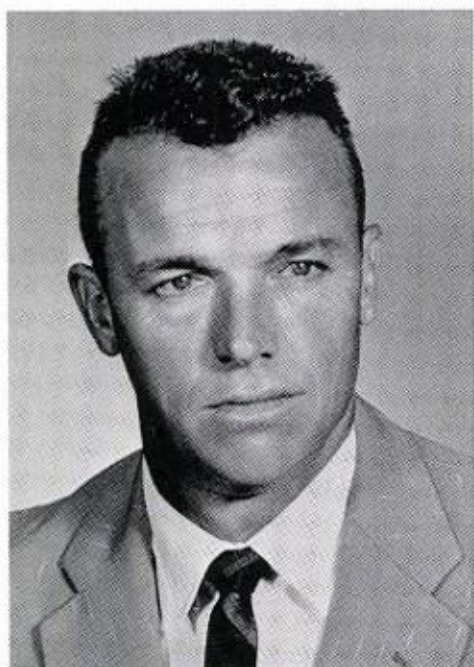

Track was the high point of Coach Mayo's coaching. The team "copped" first place in district.

Mr. Mayo also fills a position in the classroom. He teaches world history and world geography.

MR. SAM MAYO

. . . New Wins

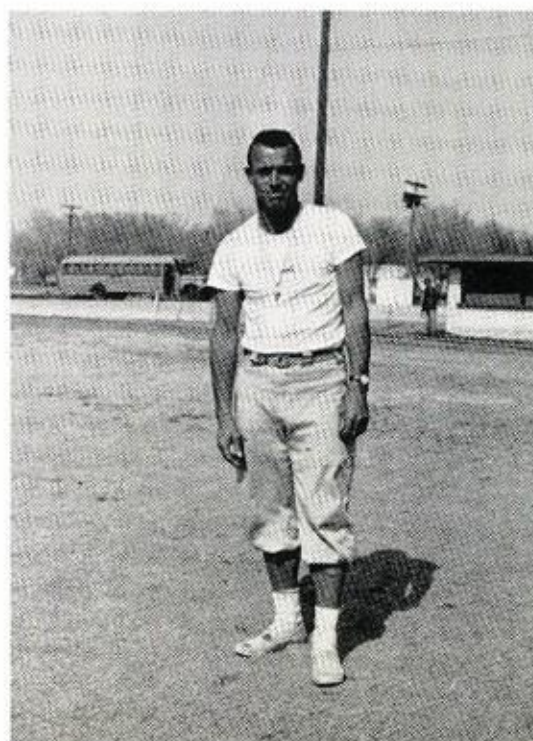

BILL McALISTER

Mr. Bill McAlister is New Deal's assistant coach and speech teacher. He also fills the position of boys basketball coach and he is the Junior High football coach. Mr. McAlister's basketball boys' team took second in the district this year.

The coach graduated from Eastern New Mexico University and previously came from Corpus Christi. He has a wife and three children. Coming from East Texas, he has had a hard time adapting to the West Texas sand storms.

Mr. McAlister has proved to be a likeable person and generally gets along with everyone.

Students Enjoy Spanish Club Activities

Mrs. Ardath Smith is the Spanish teacher at New Deal this year.

MRS. ARDATH SMITH

Mrs. Smith has tried to encourage her students in every way possible. She spurs them on by letting them give reports on the Latin American countries and by supporting their Spanish Club activities. One typical class period may be spent listening to tapes in Spanish, going over the exercises that were assigned the night before and discussing some of the unusual customs of other countries. Her students greatly enjoy her class.

Musical Interests Encouraged at NDHS

MR. FRANK SMITH

Mr. Frank Smith has been at New Deal four years and all of them have been successful. His bands have won several awards and have made several trips. With his guidance, his students have proven themselves to be true musicians. Being a member of the band has been a great advantage for many of his pupils because of the many activities they have participated in. Good Luck, Mr. Smith in whatever you may do in the future.

Classes

A cross-section of fans is shown here at the Homecoming football game. In all activities and organizations the classes combined forces to achieve their purposes. The classes did their part in promoting school spirit.

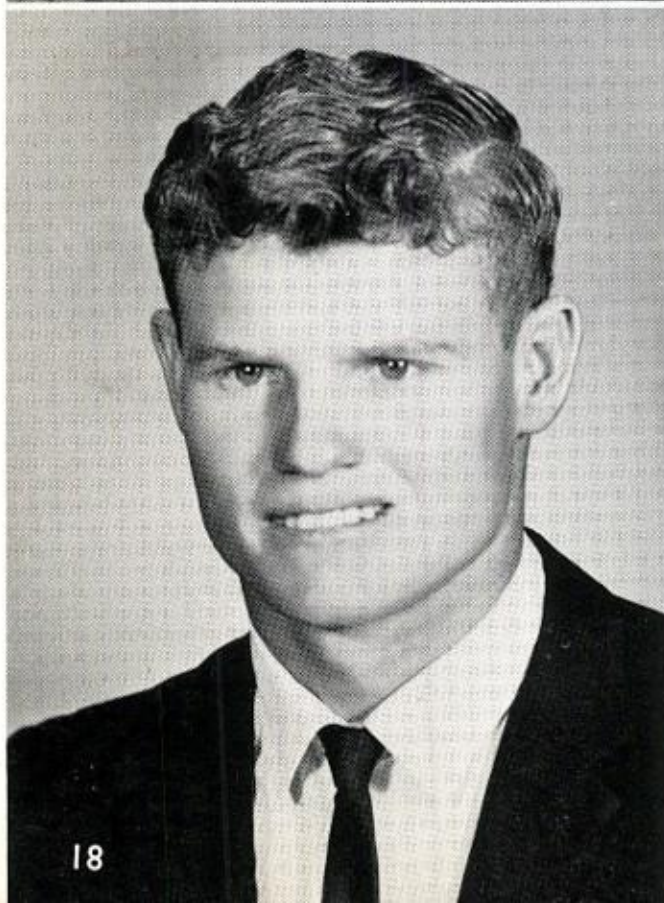

Classes were found mingled, not only as fans, but as participants in the various sports. Teams were composed of members of every class. Officers of almost every organization represented the classes.

BOHN, MIKE

BROWN, BETTY

BROWN, JERRY

Well, what do you know! We have a whole class of senior mechanics. It's certain that they are doing the best job possible, after all, they are seniors. However, President David McDougal may not appreciate their tinkering with his car. In the picture above are Linda Henly, Mike Loudon, Lester Owen, and Mike Bohn.

"Who said it wasn't too cold to collect junk today?" was the cry of several seniors as they "begged and borrowed", one Saturday. Below are Mike Loudon, Lester Owen, Mike Bohn, and Sandy Fortenberry.

It looks like Ol' Saint Nick will soon be here! The senior class has looked forward to this Christmas for a long time, partially because it's their last one at New Deal, and partially because they are responsible for decorating the tree and having the program. This class decided to be different, so they flocked the tree, then they decided to be especially different, and flock it blue. However, it didn't work very well, so it turned out white. They weren't so different after all!

Anyone care for a trip to Alaska? It looks as if these seniors are planning one. Not really! It just happened to be cold and windy the day they picked up junk.

Where are all the boys? It seems that they all disappear when there is work to be done. They are not lazy; they are just smart. Someone has to do it, so these senior girls volunteered. They may not be too graceful, but they know how to get the job done. Shown above are Mike Bohn, Phyllis Reagan, Sandy Fortenberry, and Linda Henly. The Senior Class would sincerely like to thank everyone who made it possible for them to earn a little money, either by donating scrap iron or by eating their delicious spaghetti. We would also like to thank all the senior parents and sponsors for their work and their encouragement.

Look at this outstanding Senior Class! No one would ever guess what they are outstanding in. They can beat anyone when it comes to seeing how many people they can get on one lunch room bench. Twelve is not too bad a score! They could have gotten thirteen, but someone had to snap the picture.

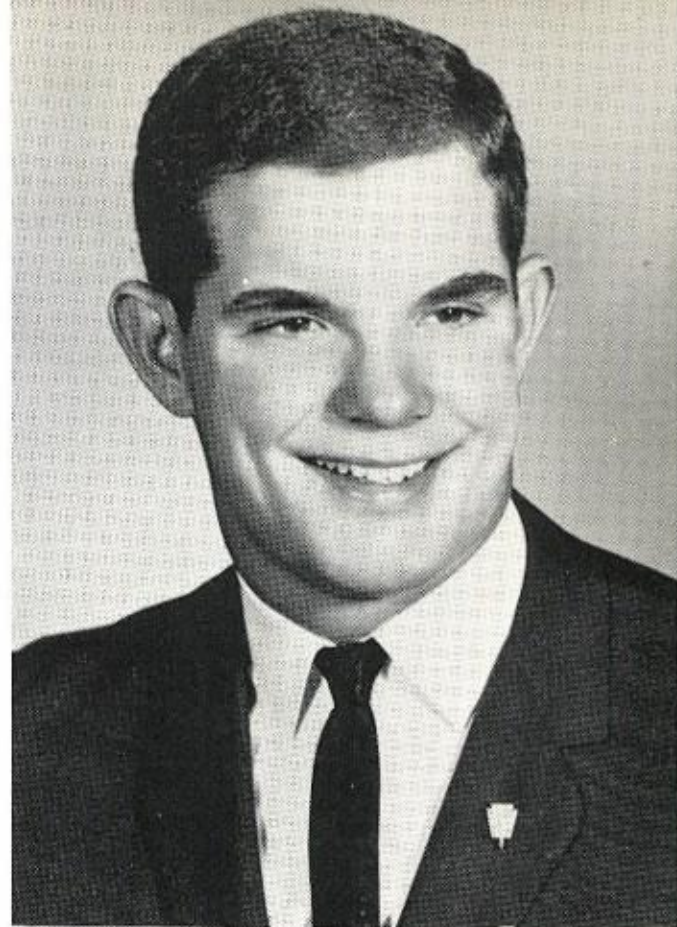

The Senior Class also led the way when it comes to flagpole climbing. Jerry Brown can say that he was the first to climb this one. Of course he was followed by some outstanding juniors, but Jerry was the first.

Mr. Wills said, "A lick for every foot." He probably had a very tired arm after this expedition.

Senior Officers literally "scrub up" after pulling the class through various projects. The Seniors worked hard at their successful spaghetti supper with profitable results. Backs ached from the year-long scrap-iron haul. The officers were in the midst of everything, offering brains, brawn, and encouragement.

A special thanks is given for the wonderful guidance of the sponsors. Mr. Wood, Mr. Wills, and Mrs. James pitched in and helped the Seniors in every activity. They shared the work and the fun.

Birthdays Celebrated

The students in Mrs. James' bookkeeping class kept busy during the year by giving teachers and classmates birthday parties. It all began with a party for Mrs. James. Before the term was over all the Senior sponsors plus several other friends were honored at such a party. Every time, a cake was ordered from the bakery and punch or cokes served. Mr. Wills was given his first surprise party. Mrs. Wills and the children were special guests. Mrs. James shows surprise as she enters the room in the picture at the left. She shows off her cake in the picture at the right.

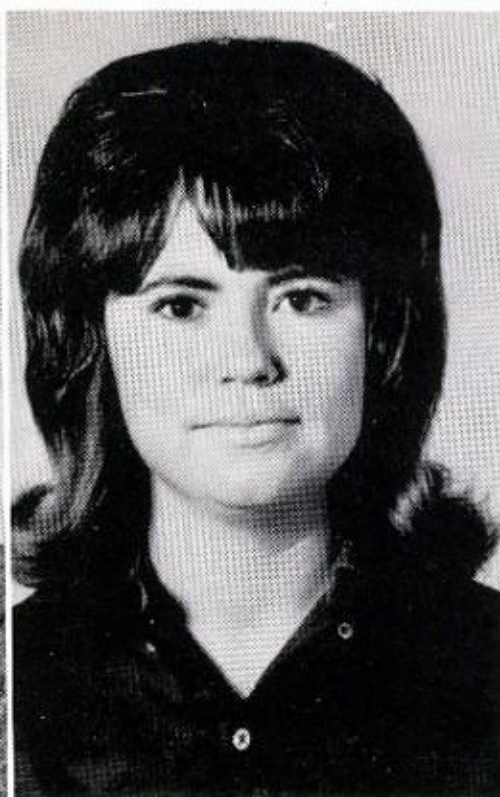

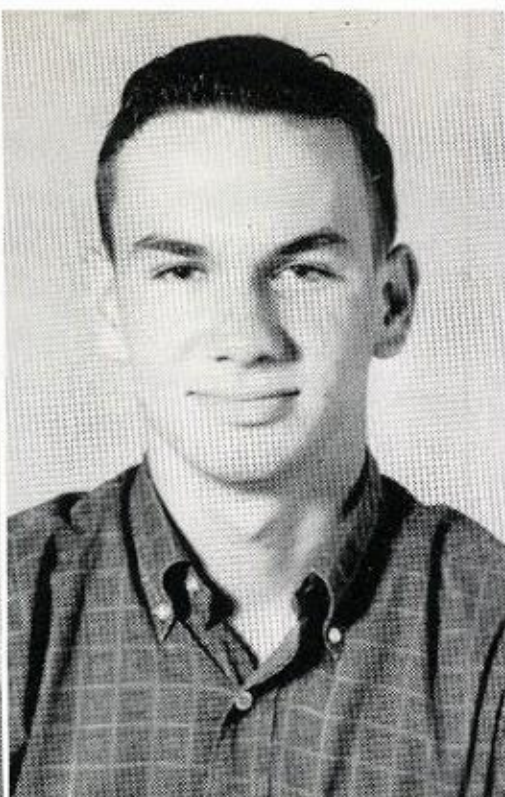

Mrs. James shows off a toy typewriter which was on her cake. Phil Reagan and Linda Henly look on.

Mr. Wills is surprised by his first party.

Mr. Wood was delighted with a party in his honor one Friday. He is shown at the right as he cuts the cake for everyone.

The Juniors were the hardest working class in high school this year. Their main task was earning money for the Junior-Senior Banquet. They sold cakes during basketball games. The Juniors also made money by selling 240 bars of candy. The annual Junior play also brought in needed funds.

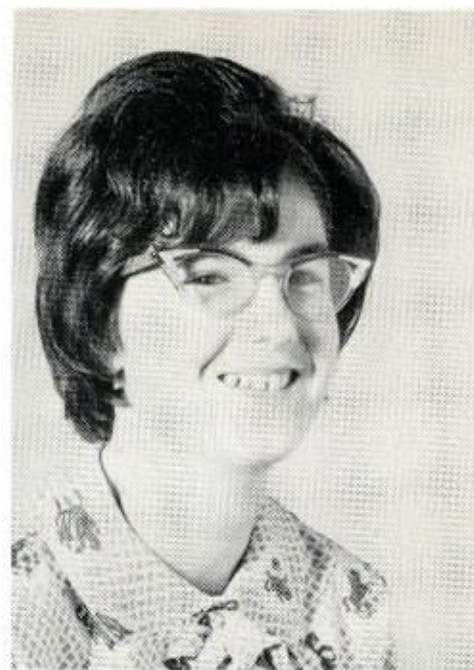

The Junior officers and sponsors are shown here working on the stage setting--at least the officers are industrious.

The Sophomore Class has no worries with such a capable crew at the helm. Teamwork is the watchword of this class although competition is still between the boys and girls. This was evidenced in the poster contest for Public School Week. The boys wore big grins for days because their poster on Julius Caesar placed first. Of course, the girls came in second.

Mr. Hamm and Mrs. Lewis lead the class in the year's activities. Highlight of the first semester was a volleyball party in the gym.

Athletic prowess counted as Freshmen took places on the football and basketball teams. They also played an important part in the many school organizations.

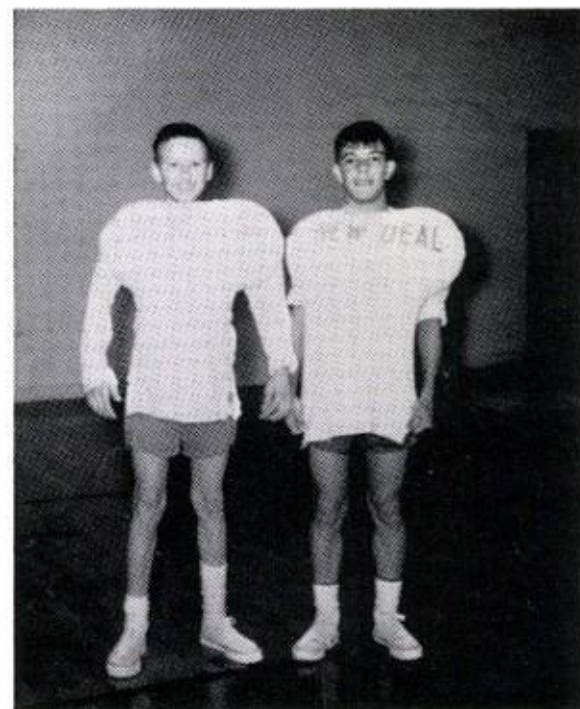

Freshmen also used their energy in their class activities. Vigor was the word to describe a volleyball party held the first semester. Hungry was the word to describe the hard-working "Fish".

These Freshmen just couldn't wait 'til after school to beat up that teacher.

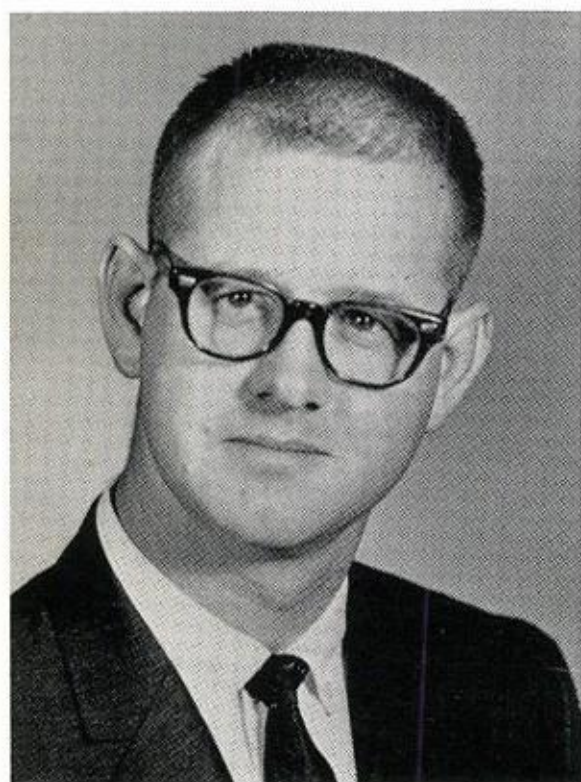

Oh, my aching feet!

This is the elementary section of the New Deal School. Many students have passed through it on their way to graduation. In many ways the goal of the teachers in the elementary grades is to prepare as many children as possible for high school and college work. Their success is dependent on the success of their students.

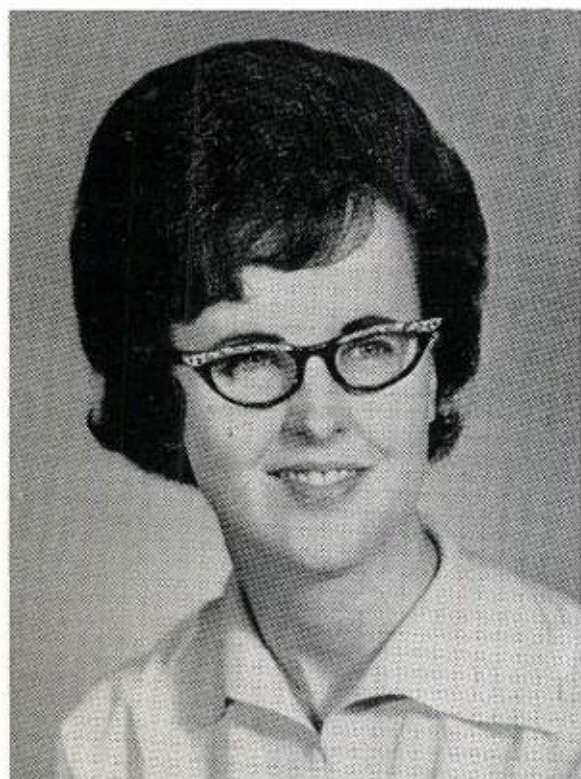

Junior High School Teachers Lead Students

MR. STACK

The role of a Junior High School teacher is often underrated by many people. This should not be the case. It is the job of these teachers to instruct students during one of the most important phases of their lives. A teacher must teach democracy and freedom. The fundamentals of freedom are incorporated into as many courses as possible. These principles are stressed throughout the years a student spends in school.

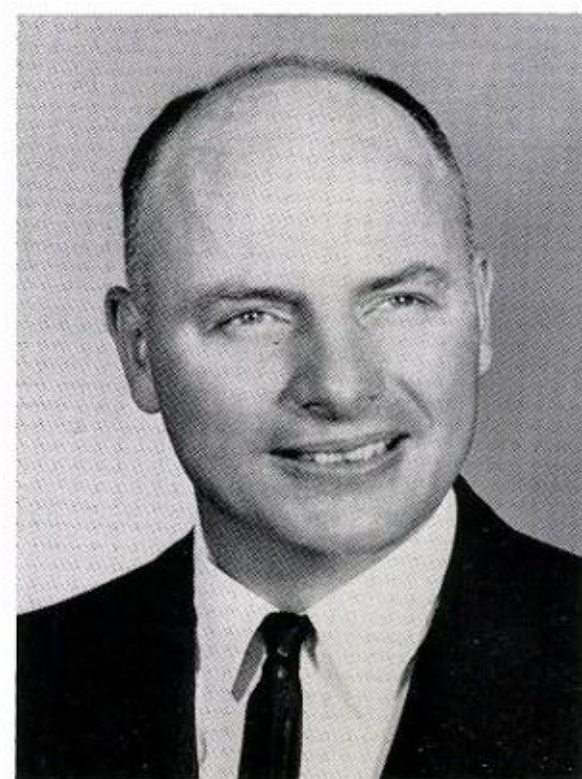

The destiny of mankind will be controlled by those citizens who are willing to use their intelligence. We have faith that freedom will prevail. To insure this privilege, our young people are influenced and instructed to dedicate their best efforts to the cause of freedom.

Teachers Have Party, Dec. 22

Students weren't the only ones at New Deal having parties the day that school let out for the Christmas holidays. The New Deal teachers got into the act by having a Christmas party of their own that day. While high school students took over the junior high and elementary classes all teachers met in the lunchroom. The party, completed by presents from Mr. and Mrs. James, added to the excitement of the holiday season.

The students enjoyed the party almost as much as the teachers did. The high school students had planned an hour of games to entertain each class. Word games were the favorite in junior high while stories and song prevailed in grade school. Everyone agreed that it was a fine way to spend the day before the holidays.

Elementary Teachers Building —

One of the primary roles of elementary teachers is to encourage their students to search for knowledge. By pointing out the wonder of the world in which we live, the New Deal Elementary teachers challenge their students everyday. Many people would find it hard to hold the attention of thirty eight-year-olds for one hour, much less all day. The teachers in grade school succeed in interesting the students while preparing them for the school life before them. Often it is a grade school teacher that an older student remembers throughout his career. By showing an able student the path to higher learning, the teachers at New Deal are shaping the lives of future citizens.

MRS. OLDHAM

Responsible Citizens

Christmas is an especially wonderful time of the year for all the elementary teachers and students in New Deal. Special decorations and parties are planned from the first day after Thanksgiving holidays. Turkeys are replaced by Santas and snowmen as the Christmas spirit takes hold. Always an interesting room is that of Mrs. Lucy McDonald. Her students' decorations are delightful and different. The last of the day brings a Christmas party to each room just before school is turned out for a long holiday. The students usually draw names and exchange gifts. Refreshments are provided by the mothers. Games are played and it is an enjoyable time for all.

An early party was held in the elementary rooms on the day of dismissal for the holidays. While the teachers had their annual Christmas party for an hour in the morning, several high school students "taught" in each room.

The Favorites of NDHS were chosen by the student body. Each class elected its own Favorite boy and girl, while the entire group selected the seniors to be named Mr. and Miss N.D. Each boy and girl pictured here is a leader, one NDHS can be proud to call its own.

F.H.A. Beau
and
F.F.A. Sweetheart

Each year the F.F.A. and F.H.A. elect by popular vote a sweetheart and beau, respectively. This year an outstanding senior, Jerry Brown, received the title of '64-65 F.H.A. Beau; and a very cute junior, Joyce Price, represented the New Deal F.F.A. as Sweetheart. Both honors were announced at the High School Halloween Party.

Best
Citizens

Perhaps the most honored title that a student can receive is that of Best Citizen. The high school faculty met and considered the entire student body, made nominations and voted. The fact that the teachers elect these makes it the great honor it is. There is one boy and girl who receives this award annually. This year the Soph. class produced these two outstanding students. Dwayne Agnew and Jo Ann Caviness are each loyal patrons of N.D.H.S.

Favorites After Hours

Sophomore Favorites, Ronnie Weems and JoAnn Cavaness, are hard at work as they think of the years ahead at NDHS.

Joyce Ann Price and Robert Davis are Juniors and can afford to take some time off for a cookout. They look forward to only one last year at NDHS.

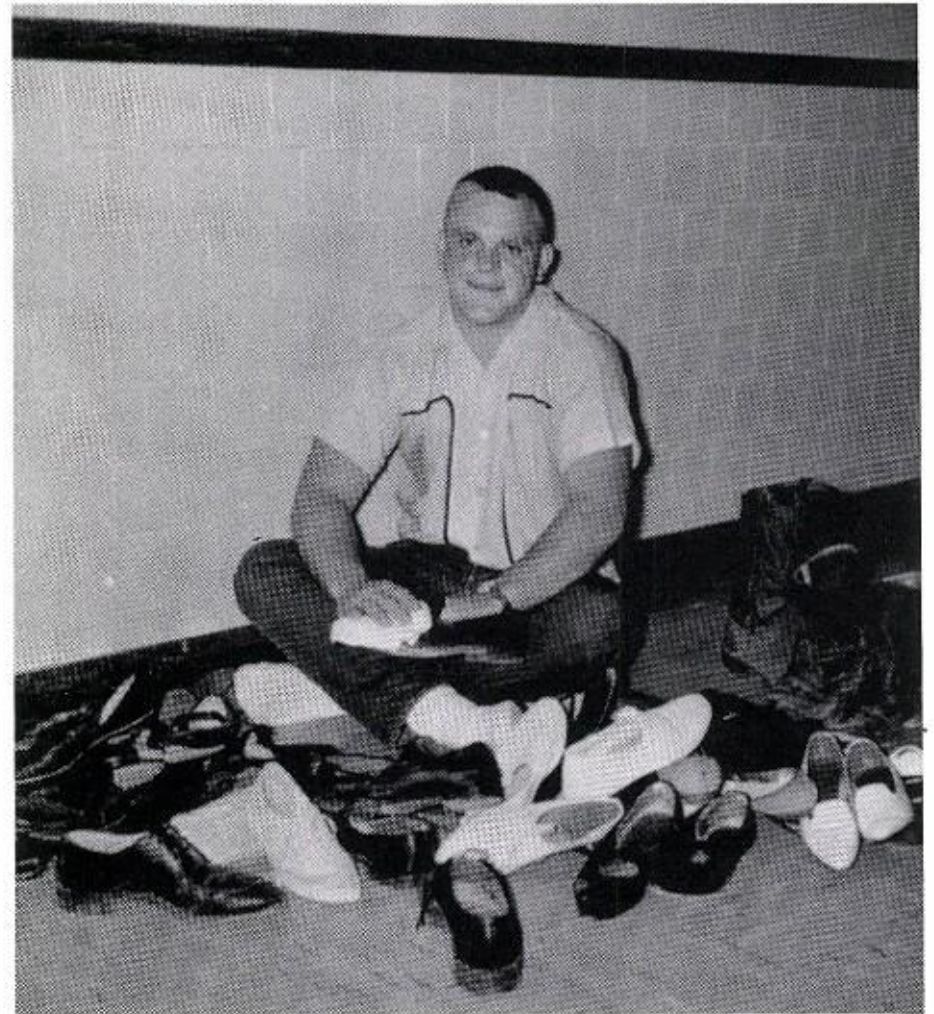

Freshmen Wayne Price and Jeri Lyn Rieken seem none too eager to get to the task at hand. Three more years await this cheerful pair.

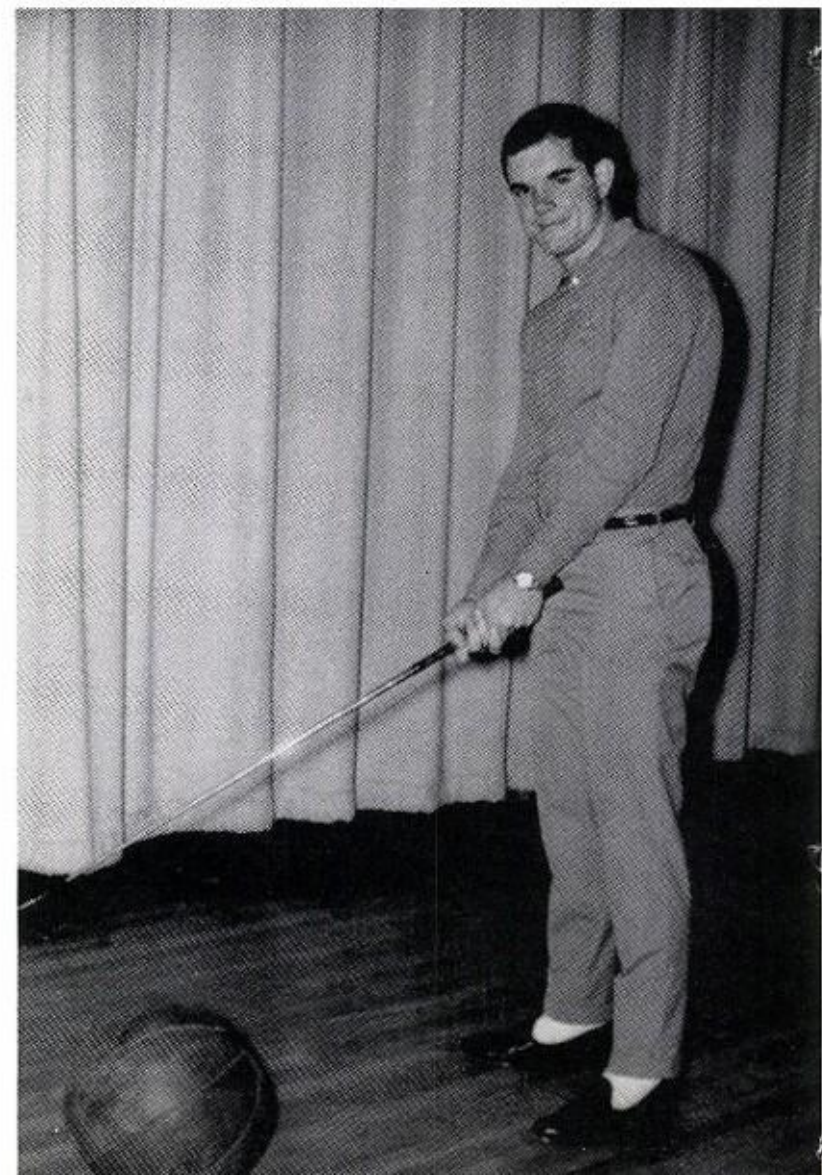

Seniors and new cars just naturally seem to go together, as Sandy Fortenberry and Randy Peebles can testify. Graduation will find both proud of their days spent at NDHS.

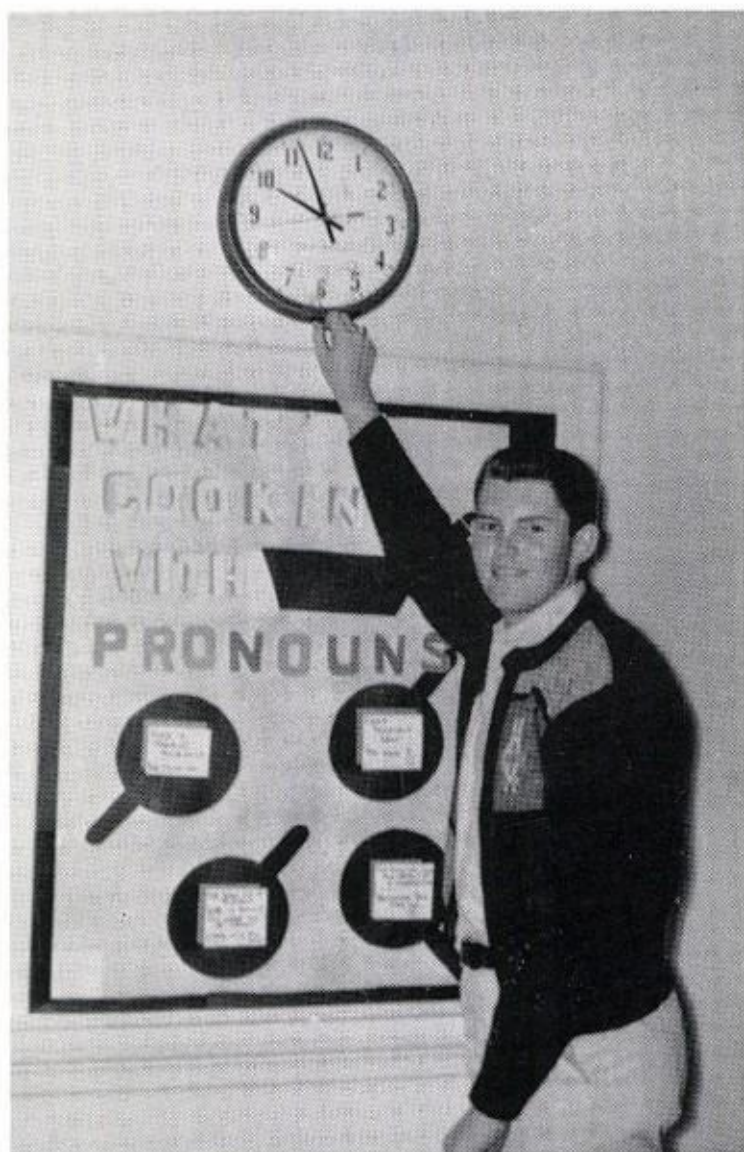

Sandy Fortenberry's talent is really showing up here! Maybe that's why she was elected "Most Talented." Sandy's talent doesn't end here however. She has been a great asset to the seniors and the entire student body.

Billy Mitchell is living up to his title of "Most Improved" and is improving the looks of the footwear of the entire junior class. With a shiny personality to go with his shoes, Billy has certainly impressed the teachers this year.

No person can come close to approaching Randy Peebles' title of "Most Versatile." With an admirable habit of excelling in several things, Randy has taken part in just about every activity at NDHS. He has done an excellent job in his final year at "dear ole ND."

Coy Ballard, sophomore, is planning to go to lunch early today by setting the clock up. This has been a favorite game of the sophomores this year. If the teachers knew about this, Coy probably wouldn't have the title of "Most Cooperative."

Phyllis Reagan, senior, and Gary Winningham, junior, are just lounging around talking about their new position of "Best All Around" at NDHS. Both have laid solid claims to the title by their outstanding leadership this year. It's certainly swell to have the "Best"----- Around.

With a technique like this, David McDougal is bound to be "Most Likely To Succeed." After receiving this award for the past three years, David, being a senior, certainly will be embarrassed if he flunks out of his freshman year at college.

No wonder Karyn Peeples, a junior, was elected "Friendliest." Any time a student at "NDHS" gives up food, he is bound to be branded a "jewel". Karyn, with her crisp personality and crisp potato chips, is a hit with Jerry, too! She always has a friendly smile for everyone.

Jo Ann Cavaness' willingness to help brings her the title of "Most Dependable." In every way, every day, she tries to assist anyone who needs it. The office is only one place Jo Ann's services are needed.

Cynthia Galbraith seems to find time for many activities even though she was named "Most Studious". By working hard, she has managed to keep her grade averages high.

Linda Bell, junior, would rather fight than switch. She's not going to let anything keep her from laying solid claim to "Most Courteous" at NDHS. Jim's bound to feel a little awkward, but then, maybe he has switched!

Sports

Victory has always been the goal of all sports at New Deal. Whether in football, basketball, tennis, or track, the teams are usually victorious. But whether the game ends in victory or defeat, they always display good sportsmanship.

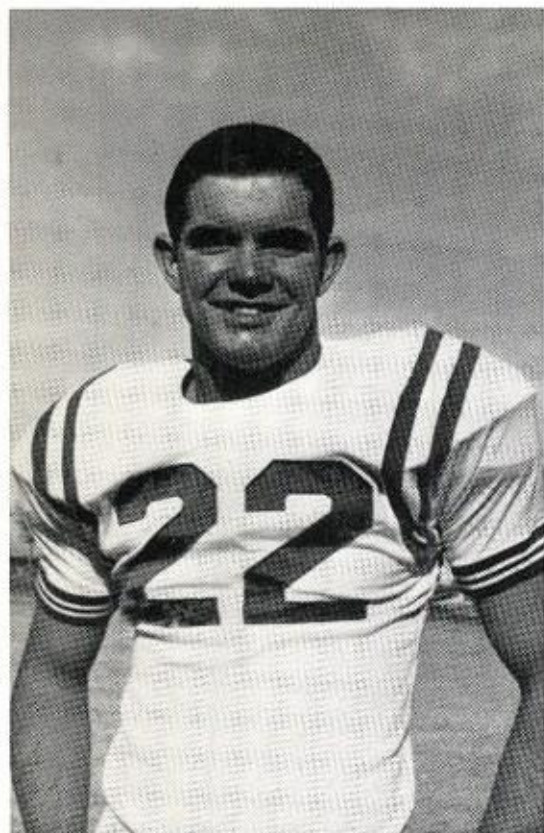

"So show them your might, New Deal High

And win in the fight, New Deal High

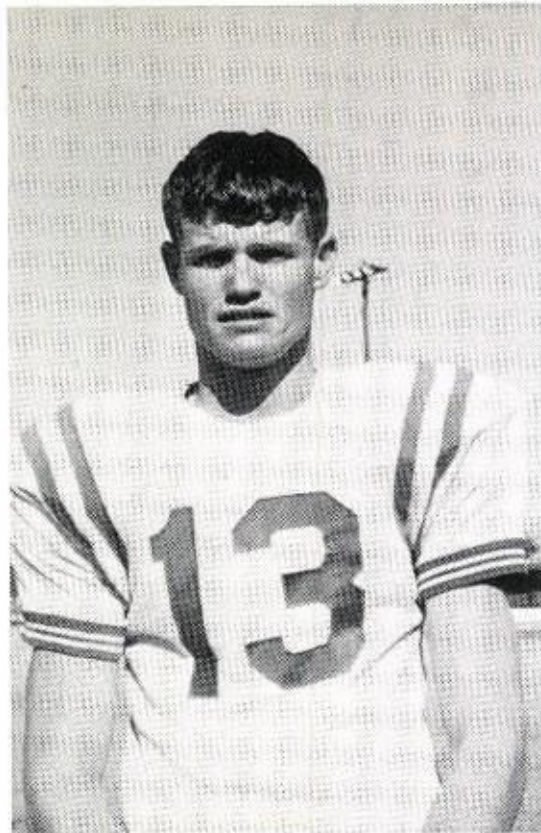

Our team is a fame protector, on boys

For we expect a victory from you,

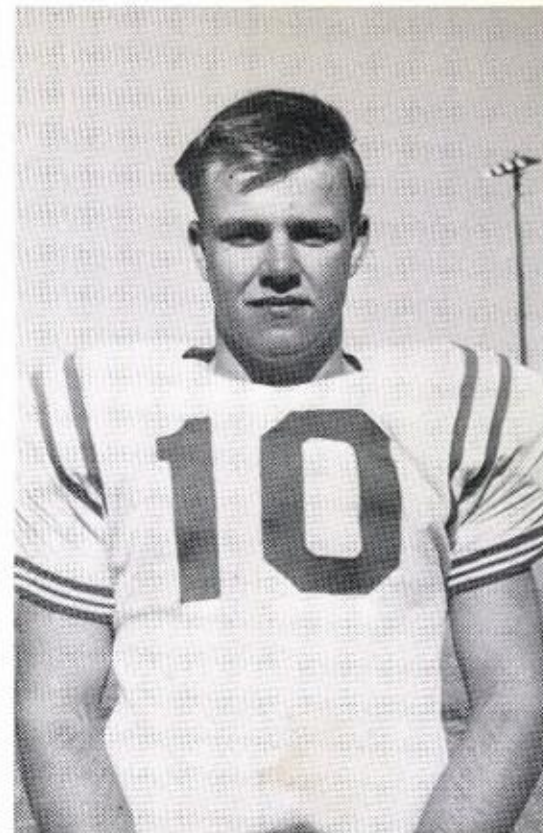

New Deal High"

Lions Split Season

After the dismal '63 season, the football glories of New Deal had nowhere to go except up, and that is where they went. This year, our boys made a 500% improvement over last season. With a little more seasoning and experience, we shall have the makings of a district champ for next year. The boys' enthusiasm was given a great boost by the tremendous support given by the fans and pep squad all year long. Several boys captured post season honors, and these were Billy Mitchell, Jerry Brown, Gary Winningham, Mike Heald, Gary Justice, Dwayne Agnew, Gary Rieken, Tommy Haggard, and Lawson Smith. We are looking forward to a terrific winning streak next year.

Small Team Has Good Year at NDHS

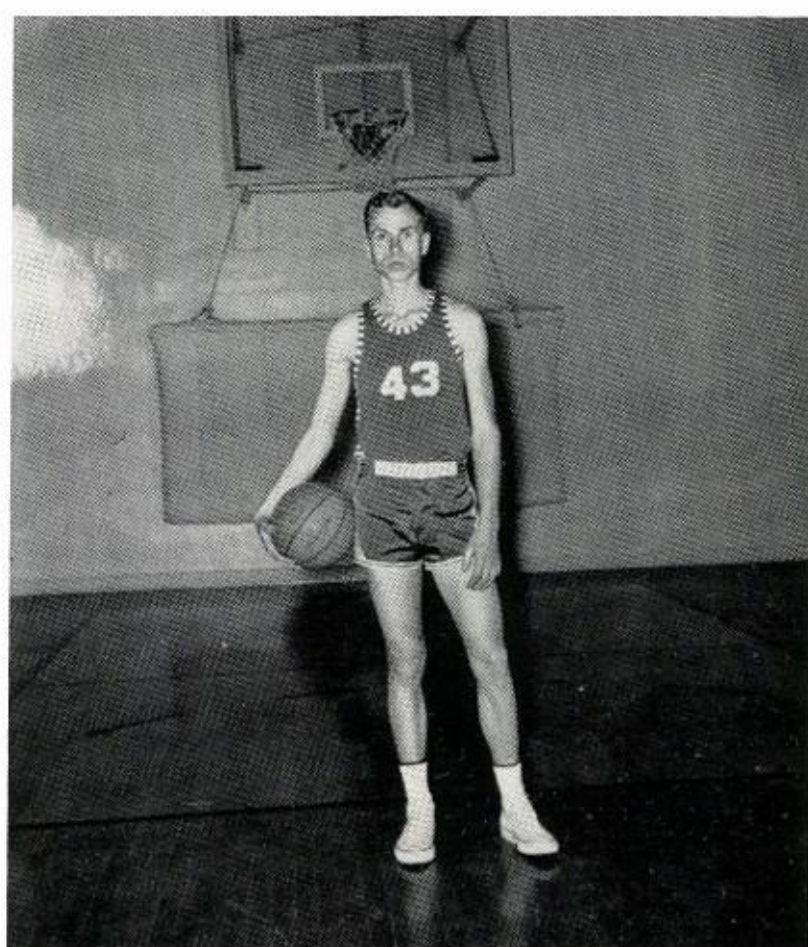

The New Deal High School boys basketball team had quite a successful season bringing home 17 wins against 7 defeats. Coached by Bill McAllister, the Lions had a small, but experienced team. David McDougal, Jerry Brown, Randy Peeples, and Mike Loudon were all returning starters from last season, with Dwayne Agnew filling out the starting five.

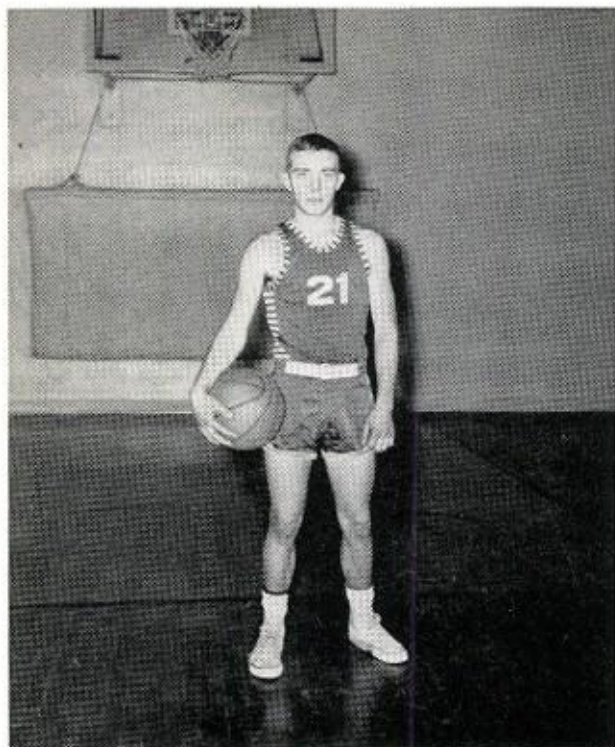

Here we have the start of the Lions final game of the season in the district tourney. The Lions fell to the Southland Eagles in this game by two points. The Lions and the Eagles tied for second place in district play.

Dwayne Agnew filled a vacant spot on the team this year and proved to be a great success. His fair play and good sportsmanship was a prime factor. Each boy did his part in earning a winning season.

Intermural Events

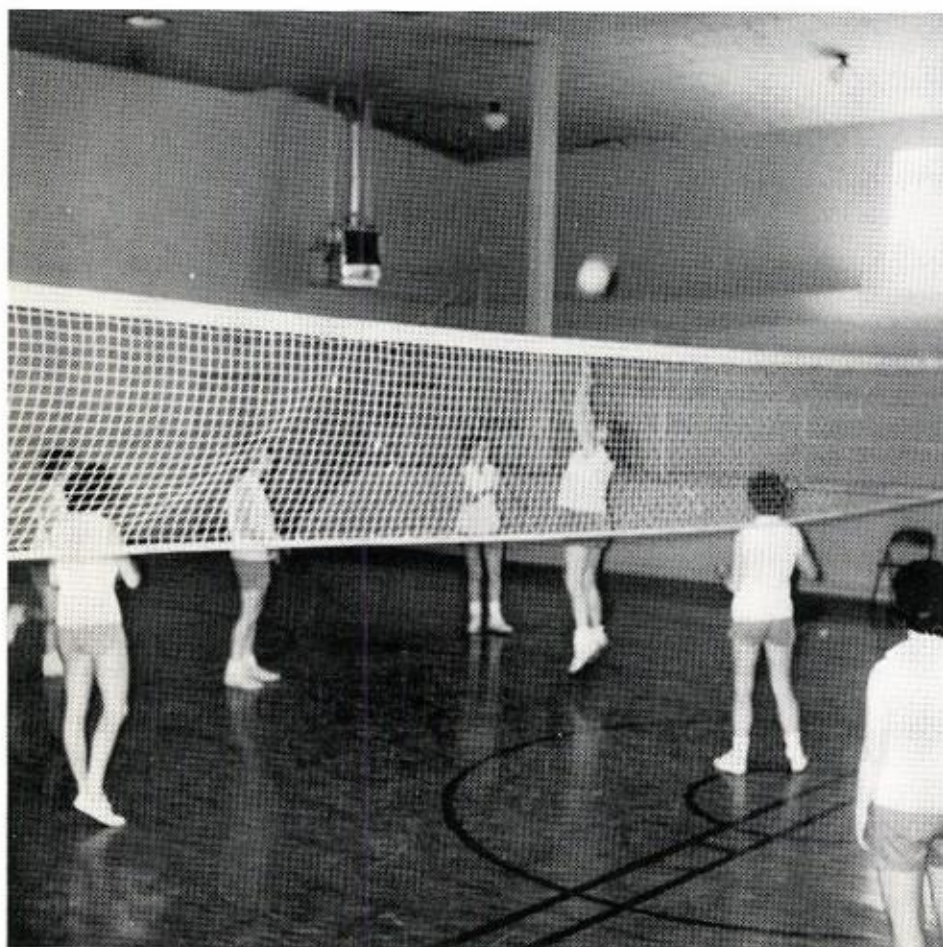

The second place team consisted of Dale McDougal, L. J. Bradley, Roy Darty, and James Norton.

Volleyball

Everyday after lunch, people of NDHS would try their hand at playing volleyball. At first it was very confusing. At midterm, Mr. Wills and Coach Mayo solved the problem. Teams were organized and a tournament was held. The teams were named. These consisted of both students and teachers. There was not really much volleyball played, but everyone was able to relax before returning to class.

Junior High "A" Teams

The Junior High girls' basketball team is shown at the left. They are on the TOP ROW from Left to Right, G. Parrish, S. Exum, C. Walkup, S. Fortenberry, E. Storrs, R. Randolph, manager, C. Martin, B. Walkup and B. Kinner, BOT-TOM ROW, G. Baker, J. Isaacs, S. Hamilton, P. Peacock, A. Holmes, P. McNeely, D. McDougal, V. Showalter, R. Brown, R. Jones, J. Winningham, and W. Darty.

Nothing short of hard work and a lot of sweat make a football team, and the Jr. High players experience much of the same. The captains of this year's edition of the Jr. High team were Joey Sherman and Robert Norris.

The Junior High "B" Basketball team did a fine job of supporting the "A" string. They are from Left to Right, BACK ROW: R. Taylor, R. Sanders, R. Norris, B. Slaton, J. Carroll, R. Hamilton, and J. Speer. FRONT ROW: D. Poe, D. Poe, B. Jackson, J. Fritzler, and L. Freeman.

An unusual organization? Perhaps. This team represents the team-like spirit that can be found in all NDHS organizations. Working to a common goal, the students often spend time after or before school working on a special project. Whatever they are doing, one can be sure that they are working together for the betterment of the school.

Library Staff and Office Force

Enjoying coffee and other "teacher" privileges are these members of the NDHS Office Staff. From Left to Right, they are: Linda Kay Bell, 6th period; Martha Garibay, 4th period; Karyn Peeples, 3rd period; Phyllis Reagan, 5th period; Sandra Fortenberry, 3rd period; Vickie Esty, 7th period; Betty Wheatly, 7th period; Jo Ann Cavaness 1st period; and Linda Henly also 5th period.

The office staff is shown at the left as they take advantage of the teachers' lounge, which is "off limits" to everyone but the faculty. These girls and this boy work during their study periods in the high school office. Often one may see them doing odd jobs for the principal, Mr. Wills. Teachers also may take advantage of this fine help for grading papers, typing, or just running numerous errands. No matter if the job is file work, typing or moving furniture, the students are always ready to help. At least one period in the day finds the office with doubly qualified workers. Whether the two girls working get twice the work done or not is open to question. When talking of the office staff one day this remark was heard. "If they're busy, maybe they won't be in trouble." This is undoubtedly true of the NDHS Office Staff.

The members of the Library Staff are dependable and patient in their work during the study halls each day. There is one librarian for each period during the day. The students keep the books in order, check books in and out for other students, and assume the responsibility of the reference books. At the end of the year these individuals are recognized for their fine job.

In the picture above, Shirley is officially installing Stacy Brendle into the New Deal Chapter of F.H.A. After a year of being in the F.H.A., the Freshmen become official members.

Each year during one week in April, the F.H.A. sponsors "F.H.A. WEEK." They try to set up a day to further the Future Homemakers of America in some way. This year the schedule was as follows: Mon. - "Most Irresistible" day, Tues. - "Tag Day," Wed. - "Parent Appreciation" day, Thur. - "Teacher Appreciation" day, Fri. - "Color Day", and Freshman Initiation

At the left are the three candidates for Most Irresistible Boy.

In the picture above, President Shirley McAllister is presenting Mary Bigham a rose for being Most Appreciative of Her Parents.

The symbol of the F.H.A. is the red rose. For this reason the girls decided to plant a red rose bush in front of the school. This has been done in years before, but all of the bushes have died.

Style Show

It looks as if Mr. Wills and Mr. Hamm have volunteered to be decorators for the style show that was put on by the Homemaking I, II, and III classes. The girls will agree that they couldn't have done it without the help of all the teachers and parents.

These are the models and seamstresses for the style show. The girls showed the outfits that they had made themselves. Some of them showed more than one garment. The audience was amazed at how well some of the younger girls did, and they were equally amazed at how much the older girls had improved.

In the picture at the left, Judy Speer is shown as she modeled the lounging pajamas that she made. They were in an oriental design both in material and pattern.

The girls in the picture at the right are in the Homemaking III Class and, it was their job to supervise and do the majority of the work for the style show. It seemed as if it took them weeks to make the pom poms, but as they said, "We did get out of class."

FUTURE FARMERS OF AMERICA
 THE NATIONAL ORGANIZATION FOR BOYS STUDYING VOCATIONAL AGRICULTURE

The Future Farmers of America is a national organization striving to achieve one main goal: to implant an interest of agriculture into the minds of our young men. However, there are many by-products which add to the importance of the F.F.A. The world will need strong leaders in diplomacy, as well as in agriculture in the future.

This year the New Deal Chapter has taken many great strides in the direction of this goal. For the first time in four years a Parent-Son Banquet was given. This has given the New Deal F.F.A. a status symbol in N.D.H.S. activities.

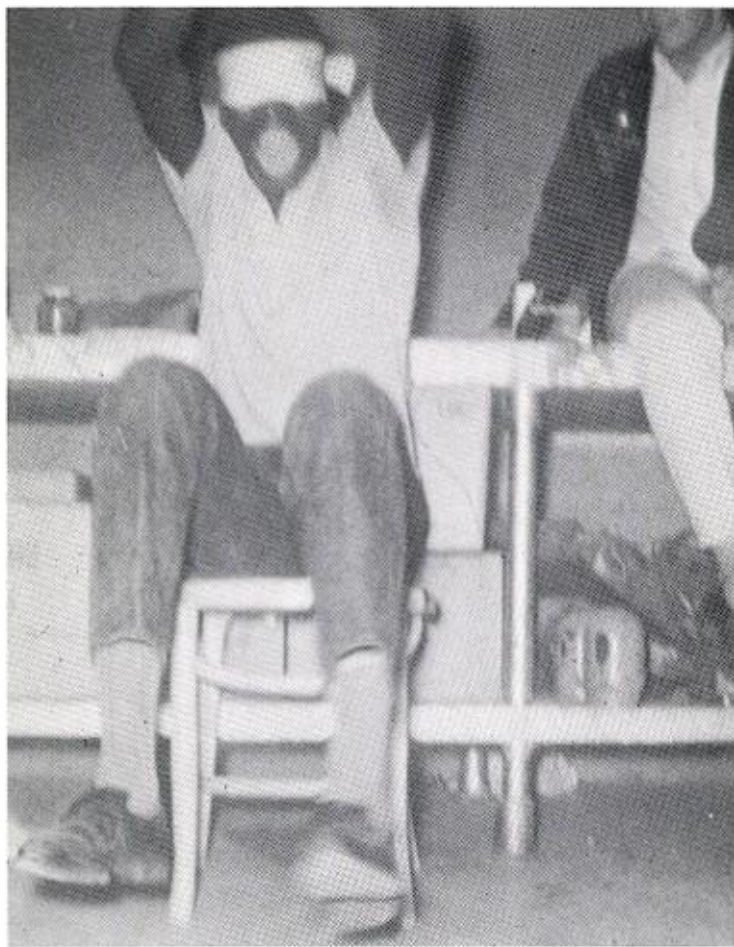

In the future, young farmers will continue to "practice brotherhood, honor rural opportunities and responsibilities, and to develop those qualities of leadership that each should possess."

Each year an outstanding Greenhand and Chapter Farmer are chosen to represent the New Deal Chapter as Star Greenhand and Star Chapter Farmer. In freshman class Ronnie Agnew was the recipient of this award. The Star Chapter Farmer was Gary Rieken. Both boys had outstanding projects.

Awards

Special attention must be given to these four boys. Each seems to be a specialist in some field of agriculture. Foundation's Awards were given to these future farmers. (L. to R.) For the first time in four years the F.F.A. had a Parent-Son Banquet. Everyone had an enjoyable evening as Underwood's played host to approximately 150 guests.

The program began with the opening ceremonies being led by President Gary Winningham. The guest speaker for the evening's banquet was the farm speaker for KFYO, Ed Wilks. The presentation of awards concluded the banquet.

As one of the F.F.A. good-will projects - 30 sacks of sausage were donated to Buckner Baptist Children's Home. Robert Davis delivered the gift.

El Club Español

The Spanish Club was first organized this year under the sponsorship of Mrs. Clyde Smith. There are twenty-four members, eight in high school and twelve in the seventh and eighth grades. This organization took the official name of "El Club Espanol." The students are members of the Pan-American Student Forum. This is a state-wide organization which tries to better our relationships with the Latin-American countries. The students also receive the newspaper called "Pan Am Times" and they have had several articles about New Deal's club in it.

Rah! Rah! Rah!

Our cheerleaders did a very fine job of leading yells this year. The group consisted of Jo Ann Cavaness, Joyce Price, Mary Bigham, Karyn Peeples, and Martha Garibay. Head cheerleader this year was Joyce Price, a Junior. We are hoping to see them next year.

Pep Squad Supplies Pep

New Deal High's '64-'65 Pep Squad was composed of girls in grades nine through twelve. The girls made a lot of noise in cheering the football team. They also showed much enthusiasm in the pep rallies, as well as the games.

Junior High Cheerleaders

The girls shown here carried much responsibility in cheering the Junior High football team to their victories and losses. The group included Suzanne Fortenberry, Beverly Walkup, Vicki Showalter, Alice Holmes, and Dianne McDougal. Head Cheerleader was Vicki Showalter.

and Twirlers

The Junior High twirlers did an outstanding job entertaining at Junior High pep rallies and football games. The twirlers are, Left to Right, Judy Winningham and Roberta Brown. Both Judy and Roberta are in the eighth grade and looking forward to being "Fish" next year.

National Honor

The National Honor Society was started only a few years ago at NDHS, but it has nearly tripled in size. It promotes scholastic achievement and emphasizes the importance of leadership and service. In order to be a member of NHS, a student must meet certain requirements in both character and grades.

Officers for 1964-1965 are as follows:

David McDougal - President,
Sandra Fortenberry - Secretary,
Karyn Peeples - Treasurer, and Gary Winningham - Vice-President.

Each member must maintain an average of 90 for one semester in order to be installed in the organization. If his grades drop for a semester, he is put on probation and must bring his grades up or be put off the Society. Once a student has been put off, he can never again be a member.

C - Character

S - Scholarship

L - Leadership

S - Service

In the two pictures above are shown the new members of NHS being inducted in the formal installation. The National Honor Society has very formal ceremonies and these are inacted with extreme seriousness. This year the old members held a tapping ceremony before the installation. They lined up with their right hands on each other's shoulders and went from room to room picking each new member that was to be installed.

Society

After the formal installation the NHS Sponsors held a reception for the new members and their parents. Everyone enjoyed getting acquainted with the people responsible for making such fine students out of these people.

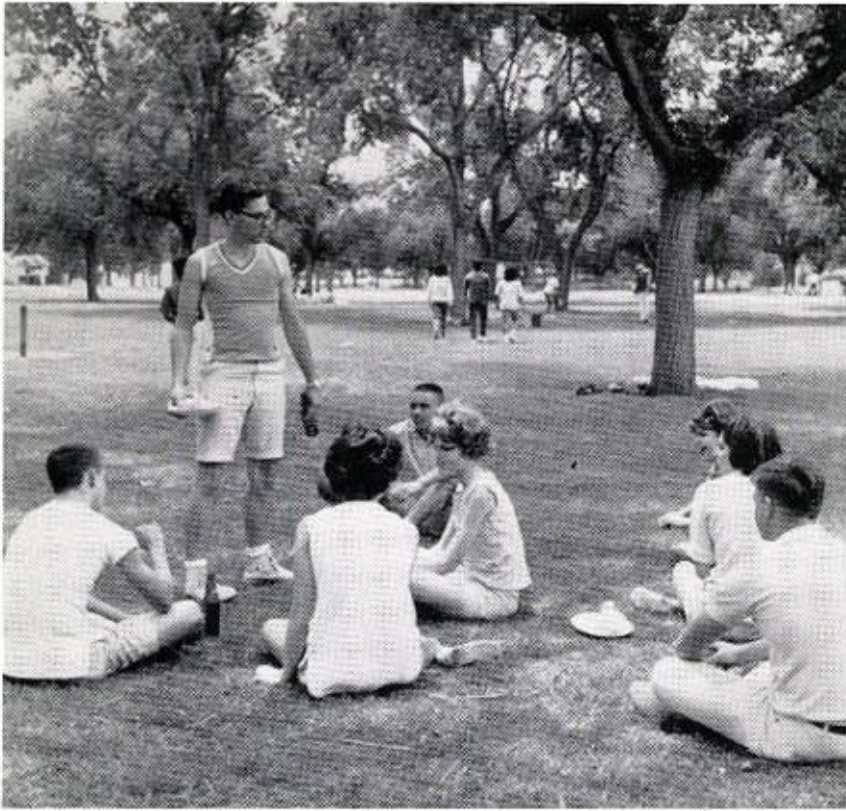

Above are shown Mr. Wills and Mr. Crooks, principals of high school and grade school respectively. They have been a vital part of our organization.

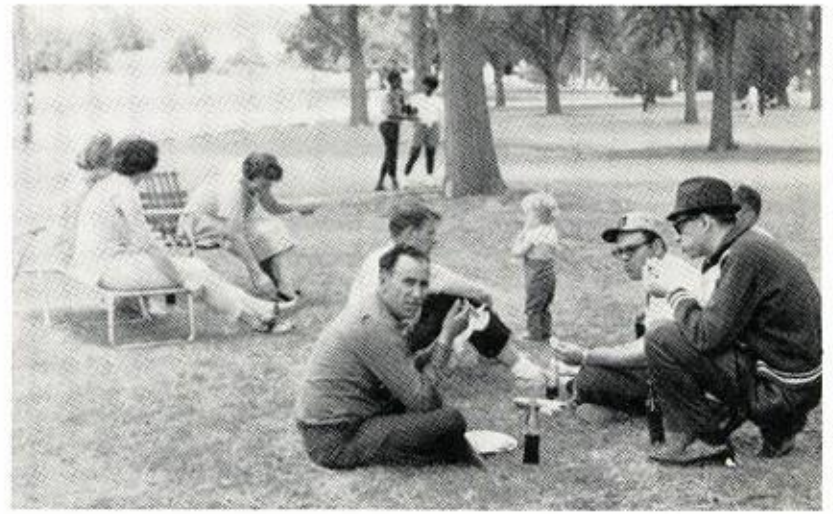

The activities at New Deal this year were numerous and enjoyable. Students and teachers alike turned out for things such as picnics, plays, and junk collecting sprees. No matter what they were doing, they all had fun. Fond memories are seen as we look at the activities of 1964-1965.

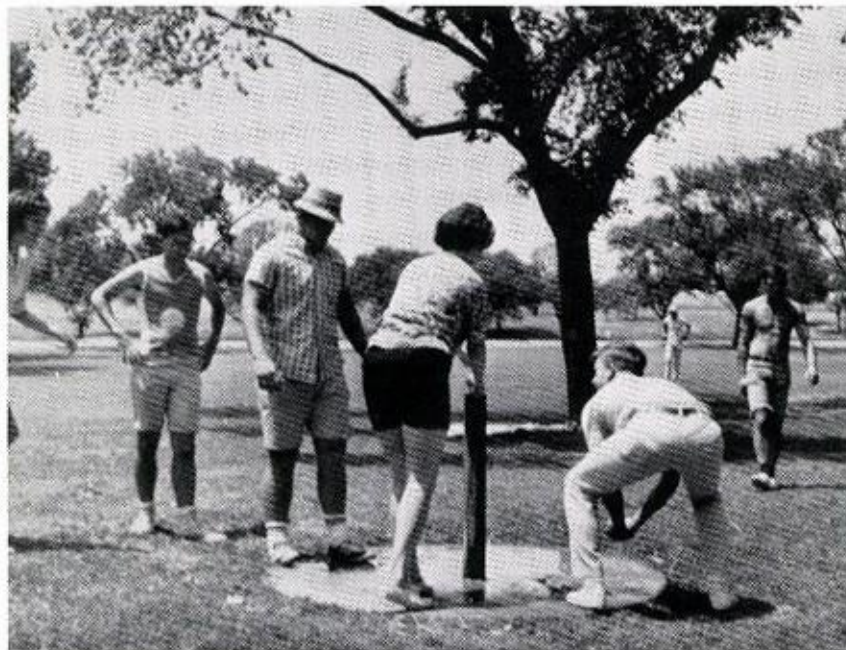

Junior and Senior High Enjoy Annual Picnic

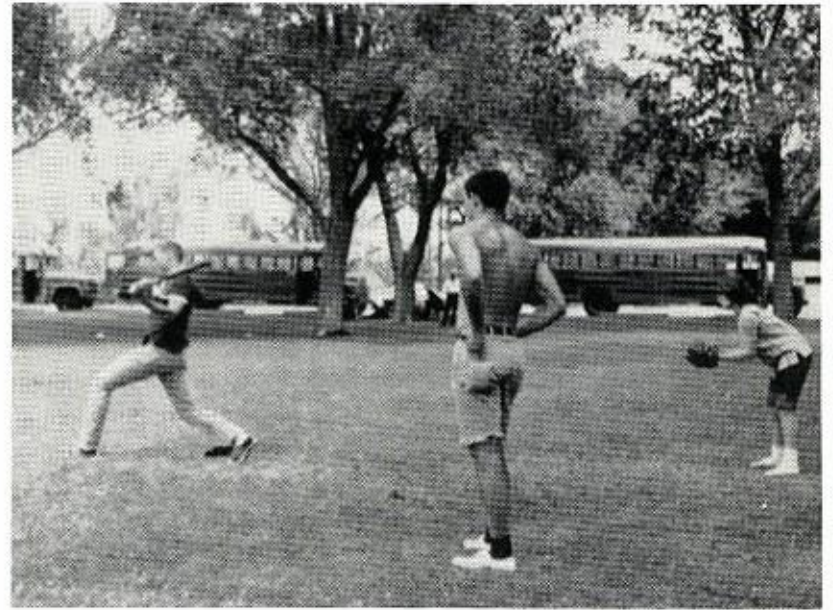

"All right, Renita, just be that way."

The faculty takes a breather during lunch.

"Watch out, Shirley! You're fixin' to get drenched."

"Strike three, you're out, Gary."

"Don't just look at the ball, girls. Hit it!"

It looks as if Mr. Byrd has his hands full.

Here we have the "chow" line again. We have to watch these guys or they'll take our last cookie. From Left to Right are Mary Peacock, Gladys Owen, Craig Loudon, Betty Wheatly and Shirley McAllister.

We can tell from the picture above that the students weren't the only ones enjoying the party, Mr. and Mrs. Cromer and Mr. Ginn are taking full advantage of this party. Mike Heald seems to be doing pretty well also.

This party was sponsored by the National Honor Society in an effort to start the year off right, allow everyone to get his annual signed, and to get some "school spirit" to come through.

Everyone in the scene below seemed to be ingrossed in signing annuals, even if they do have a peculiar way of doing it. They are Coy Ballard, Karyn Peeples, Phyllis Reagan, Jim Speer, Gary Justice, and Lawson Smith

Halloween

Above are F.H.A. President Shirley McAllister and 1965 Beau Jerry Brown after he was presented with a plaque and a kiss bestowing the honor upon him.

Each year the teachers sponsor a Halloween party for all high school students. This party is accented by skits put on by the students. There is also the presentation of the F.H.A. Beau. The students dress up and their costumes are judged.

Above are F.F.A. President Gary Winningham and 1965 Sweetheart Joyce Price just after she was presented with the honor.

Class Reunions

At the left is the class of 1957 when they gathered in 1964. At the bottom left is the same class which has increased by a few members.

At the right is the class of 1959 in its gathering in 1964. Below is the same class, also increased.

These teachers look as if they are really enjoying the Christmas season. They know how to eat, drink, and be merry.

Each year there is an annual faculty party which the teachers enjoy greatly. They have refreshments, a short program, and then they exchange gifts.

The Christmas

One of the deserving persons is our superintendent, Mr. James.

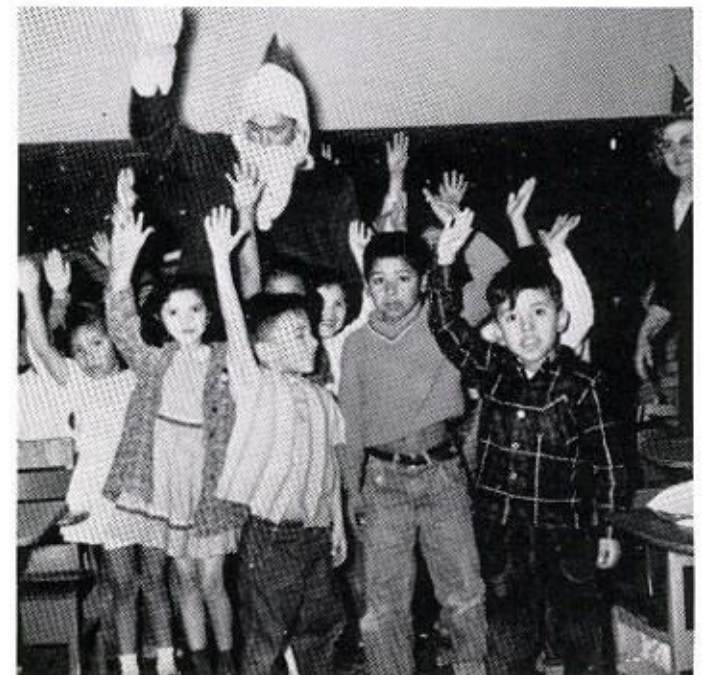

The teachers express their appreciation by presenting a small gift to him.

Who said that "Christmas is for kids." These adults are doing pretty well at getting their gifts unwrapped. As always, they just can't wait to get to the "goodies" inside. The students really enjoy seeing the teachers having such a good time.

In these pictures, Bob Bonner is playing "Santa Claus" to the grade school. It really made the day a success with these smaller children. We would like to thank Mr. Bonner for his contribution to school spirit at New Deal, Christmas or otherwise.

In the picture at the left, Mr. Willis and Mrs. James, both Senior sponsors are wetting down the tree so that Seniors can flock it blue. We would like to thank them and Mr. Wood for their hard work in making this the best year the Seniors have ever had. Without them none of the class's projects would have been successful.

In the picture above, we find some of the Seniors hard at work decorating the high school Christmas tree. Each year the Senior class is in charge of the tree and the program and this class couldn't wait to outdo all the previous classes.

Spirit

Seniors Have Program

The Seniors this year wanted everyone to really be in the mood for Christmas when school turned out. In the picture below, the class sings Christmas carols. The Seniors really enjoyed this part of the program because they got out of class to practice.

"Papa's New Pants" was the name of the skit put on by the Seniors. Everyone enjoyed seeing Papa, Mike Bohn, in his new pants.

Homecoming

Excitement filled the air as the NDHS cheerleaders led the team onto the field. Two of the cheerleaders were candidates for Homecoming Queen. They were Karyn Peeples and Joyce Price.

Vicky Esty and Margaret Wages ride onto the field in a new Ford convertible furnished by Lubbock Auto Company.

Candidates Linda Henly, Karyn Peeples and Joyce Price wave to the crowd riding in a Tempest convertible furnished by Quinn-Connelly Pontiac.

October 24, 1965 at the New Deal Football Field found Lion fans in for an extra special treat--Homecoming. It was the first time that the Ex-students Association and the High School Homecoming had been on the same day. The Saturday afternoon game featured the NDHS Lions doing battle with the Whiteface Antelopes.

The day was crisp with a light breeze whipping the streamers of the decorated goalposts. As the cheerleaders led the team onto the field it became apparent that nothing could spoil this day. The Lion fans who were seated on the west side of the field heard the announcer say that the new score board had been given to the school by the New Deal Lion's club in cooperation with the Independent Ginners Association. The grandstand also sported a new press box and concession stand.

During the half-time a Homecoming Queen was crowned by Basil Agnew and Lester Obenhaus, members of the Ex-student Association. Candidates for the honor were chosen by popular vote of the student body at NDHS. They were Linda Henly, a senior; Joyce Price, Vicky Esty, Karyn Peeples, and Margaret Wages, all Juniors. Because of a tie, two Queens were named. They were Karyn Peeples and Joyce Price. Each candidate attended the Ex-student's banquet following the game.

Highlights

Karyn was crowned the second of NDHS's two Queens by Lester Obenhaus.

All Queen contestants are shown at the right with NDHS twirlers and members of the Lions' Club standing in front of the new score board which was presented to the school by the Independent Ginners Association through the Lions' Club. The electric board proved to be "pride and joy" of the entire student body.

Kickoff Party for Administrators and Others

Vickie Esty, Mrs. Wages, and Mrs. Smith really loaded their plates. (Watch that waistline).

"Where are your sanitary, plastic gloves, Mrs. Wills?"

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Boyd, County Superintendent, and Assistant County Superintendent, seemed to enjoy themselves.

"My wife must be around somewhere."

Mrs. Gochoel and Mrs. Wood were unconcerned about posing for this picture; they just wanted that food!

The speakers won five first places. The debate team, Cynthia Galbraith and Mary Bigham, won in its first debut. Judy Speer and Jim Speer took blue ribbons in Girls and Boys Extemporaneous Speaking. Sandy Fortenberry and David McDougal brought home first place honors in Persuasive Speaking.

The slide rule team is composed of Mike Bohn, Lester Owen, and Randy Peebles. These boys captured all three ribbons for the slide rule contest. Randy won first; Lester, second; and Mike, third.

The readers took two individuals to the Regional meet. Gary Justice and Vickie Esty won first places in Boys and Girls Prose Reading. Coy Ballard won second place in Boys Poetry Reading and Linda Freeman was the entrant in the girls division.

Spring Meet Taken by ND

New Deal took high honors in its first year to enter tennis. Gary Winningham and Gary Justice won first place in the boys doubles. They then went to region. Randy Peebles defeated all comers and won the boys singles. Phyllis Reagan took a red ribbon and second place for ND.

Flying fingers were characteristic of the typing contestants. Vickie Esty and Janice Hogan represented ND. Vickie brought home a blue ribbon and Janice captured third place.

The number sense team consisted of Dwayne Agnew, Jo Ann Cavaness, and Cynthia Galbraith. Ronnie Agnew was the alternate. This group made a fine showing but did not place.

David McDougal and Sandy Fortenberry were the entrants in the Science contest. David placed third.

The golf team putted itself to second place. Excepting the loss of senior David McDougal, this team should do equally as well next year. Other members are Dale McDougal, Ronnie Weems, and Jim Speer.

For many years it has been a favorite money-raising project of the junior class to put on a play. This year was no exception. The play, "Publicity Mad" took place in an old boarding house for would-be actresses. When a young girl, simply mad for publicity arrived on the scene, things really began to pop! The owner of the house lost her head over the whole thing. All in all, everyone agreed that the play was a success.

"No, she's not an actress. She's a mother, you idiot!"

"Just you keep away from her, I've got enough trouble getting her to do anything when you're not around."

"You mean she put a snake in bed with her just to get her name in the paper!"

"I'm sorry! I'll never be 'publicity mad' again."

Junior-Senior Banquet Has Spanish Theme

Juniors Joyce, Dennis and Jan seem to be enjoying their meal.

Reverend Stephenson was forced to an impromptu type of entertainment because there was no piano. However, everyone enjoyed his songs and funny stories.

Mr. and Mrs. James and Mr. and Mrs. Stephenson wait for the banquet to begin.

The head table is shown at the right.

This year NDHS is losing many outstanding seniors. The science department was led by David McDougal (left). In the math department, Lester Owens took top honors.

Athletics

Both Phyllis Reagan and Jerry Brown are among the best athletes New Deal has ever produced. Phyllis was an excellent basketball player on the '64-65 team. Jerry is versatile in all sports.

Typing and Bookkeeping

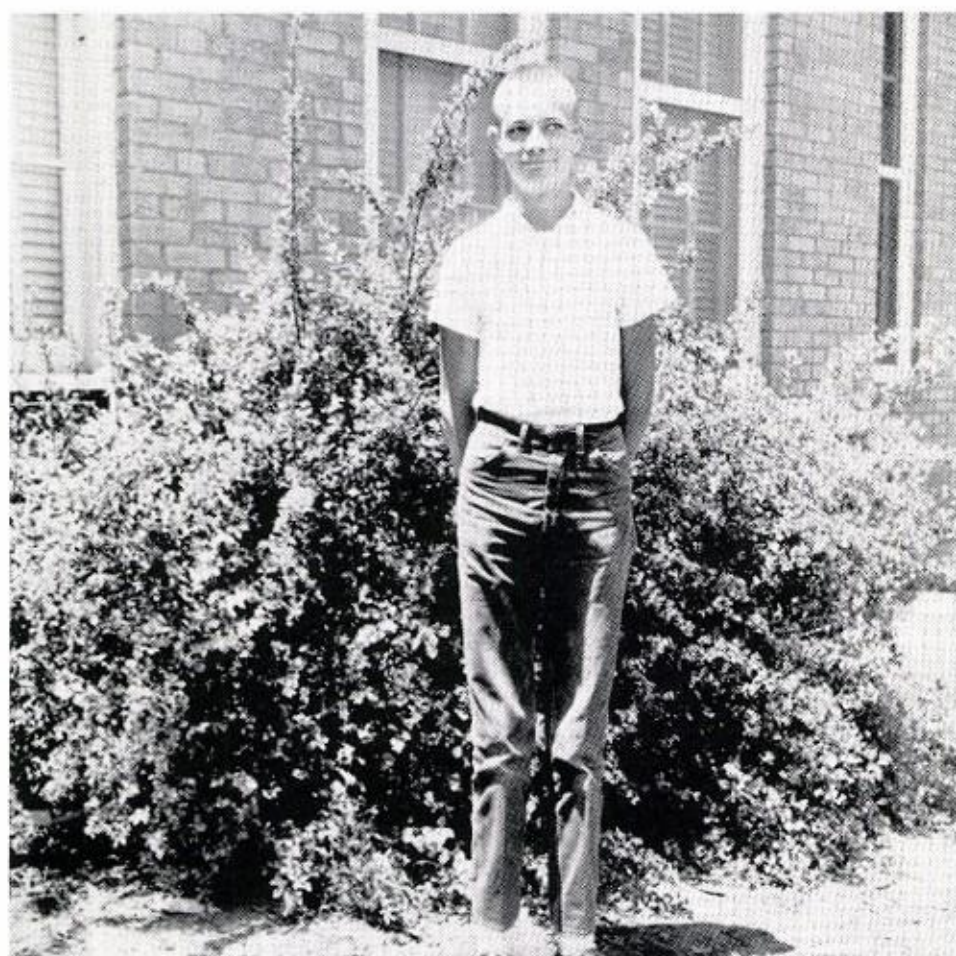

These two seniors have shown their skill in business academic courses. Sandy Fortenberry is an excellent typist. Randy Peebles has proved his ability in accurate bookkeeping.

Awards

Agriculture and Homemaking

Cynthia Galbraith was an outstanding student in home economics. Robert Davis has shown great leadership ability in the Future Farmers of America organization. Each are excellent citizens of New Deal.

Music

Jimmy Teeter is very talented in the field of music. This year the Lions Band has progressed with the help of Jimmy.

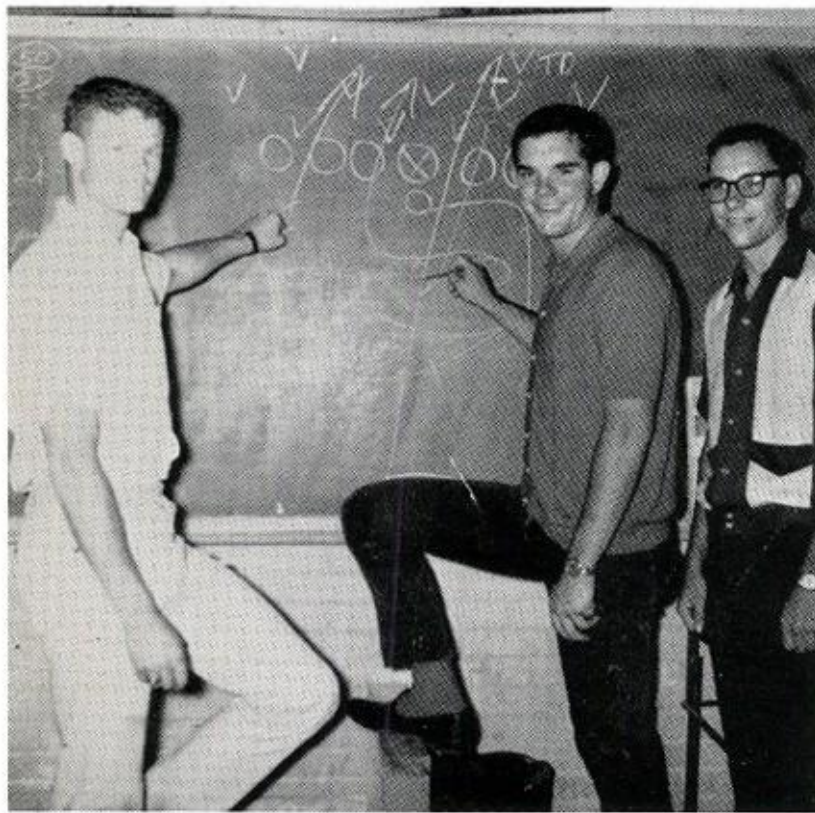

English and History

Gary Justice (left) seems to know his pronouns and verbs. The English award went to Gary this year. Jim Speer has excelled in history. Information and dates are his "dish".

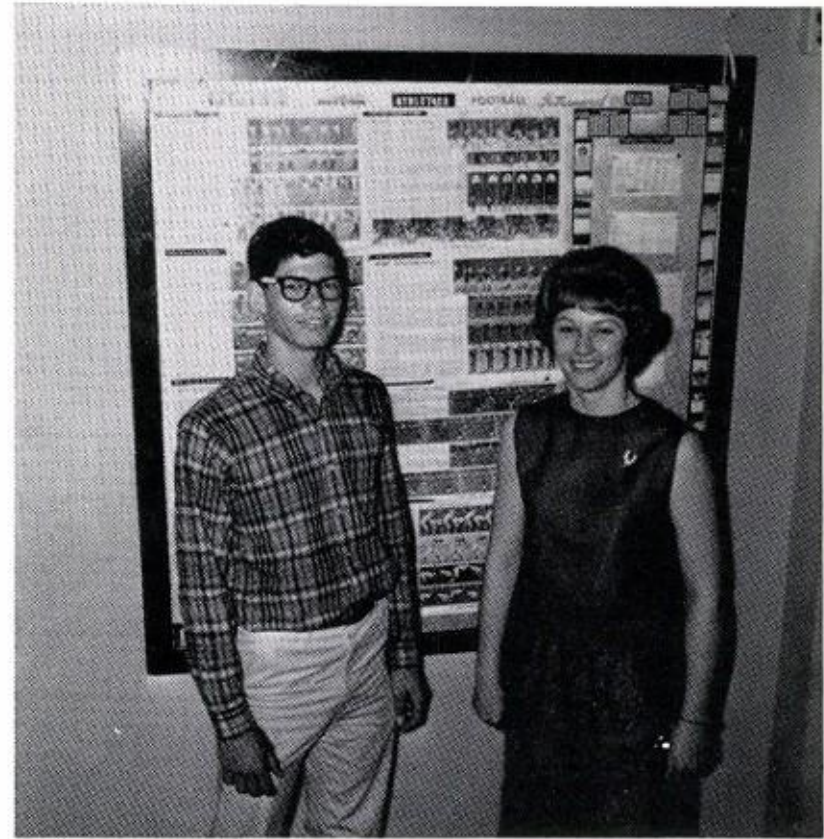

Teams Have Capable Leadership

The varsity teams at New Deal High School this year were led by what seemed to be the most capable students in many seasons. The team members select the captains for their teams. In this way, the student must prove himself to his teammates as well as to the coach.

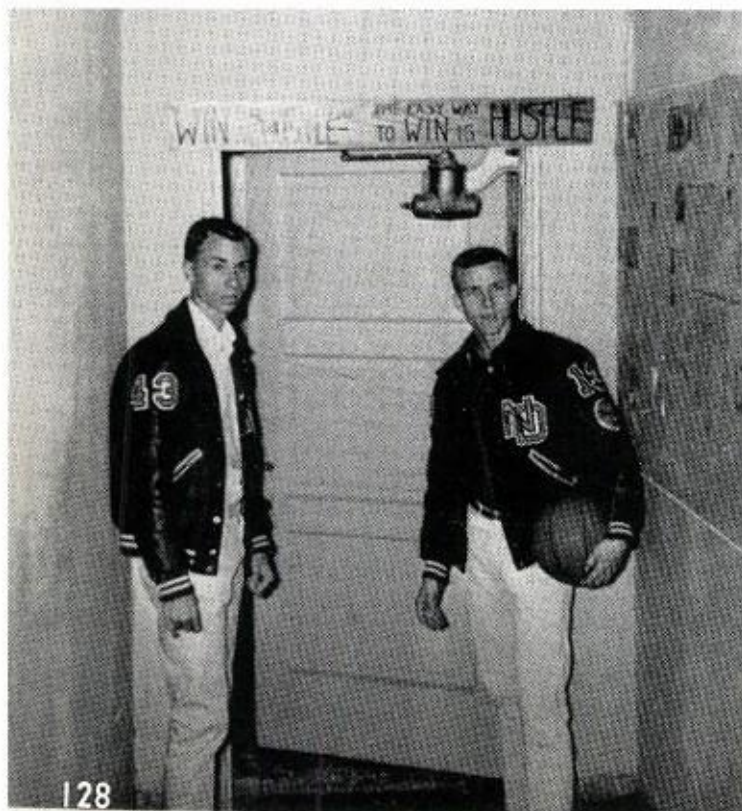

For the first time a girl and a boy were selected "Best Sports" at NDHS. Because sportsmanship plays such a big part in all athletic events, it is only natural that those displaying the best of these qualities be honored.

Dwayne Agnew and Vicky Esty were chosen to be the very "Best Sports" at NDHS this year. Fans and teammates alike appreciate their fine performances.

Girls basketball captains Betty Brown, and Phyllis Reagan, are pictured above as they go over the books to check the team's scoring average.

Homecoming Snapshots

First on the agenda for the Exes was registration.

Next, came the business meeting and the reminiscing.

After the game, the Exes' Banquet was held in the school cafeteria. The line was long, but the food was worth waiting for.

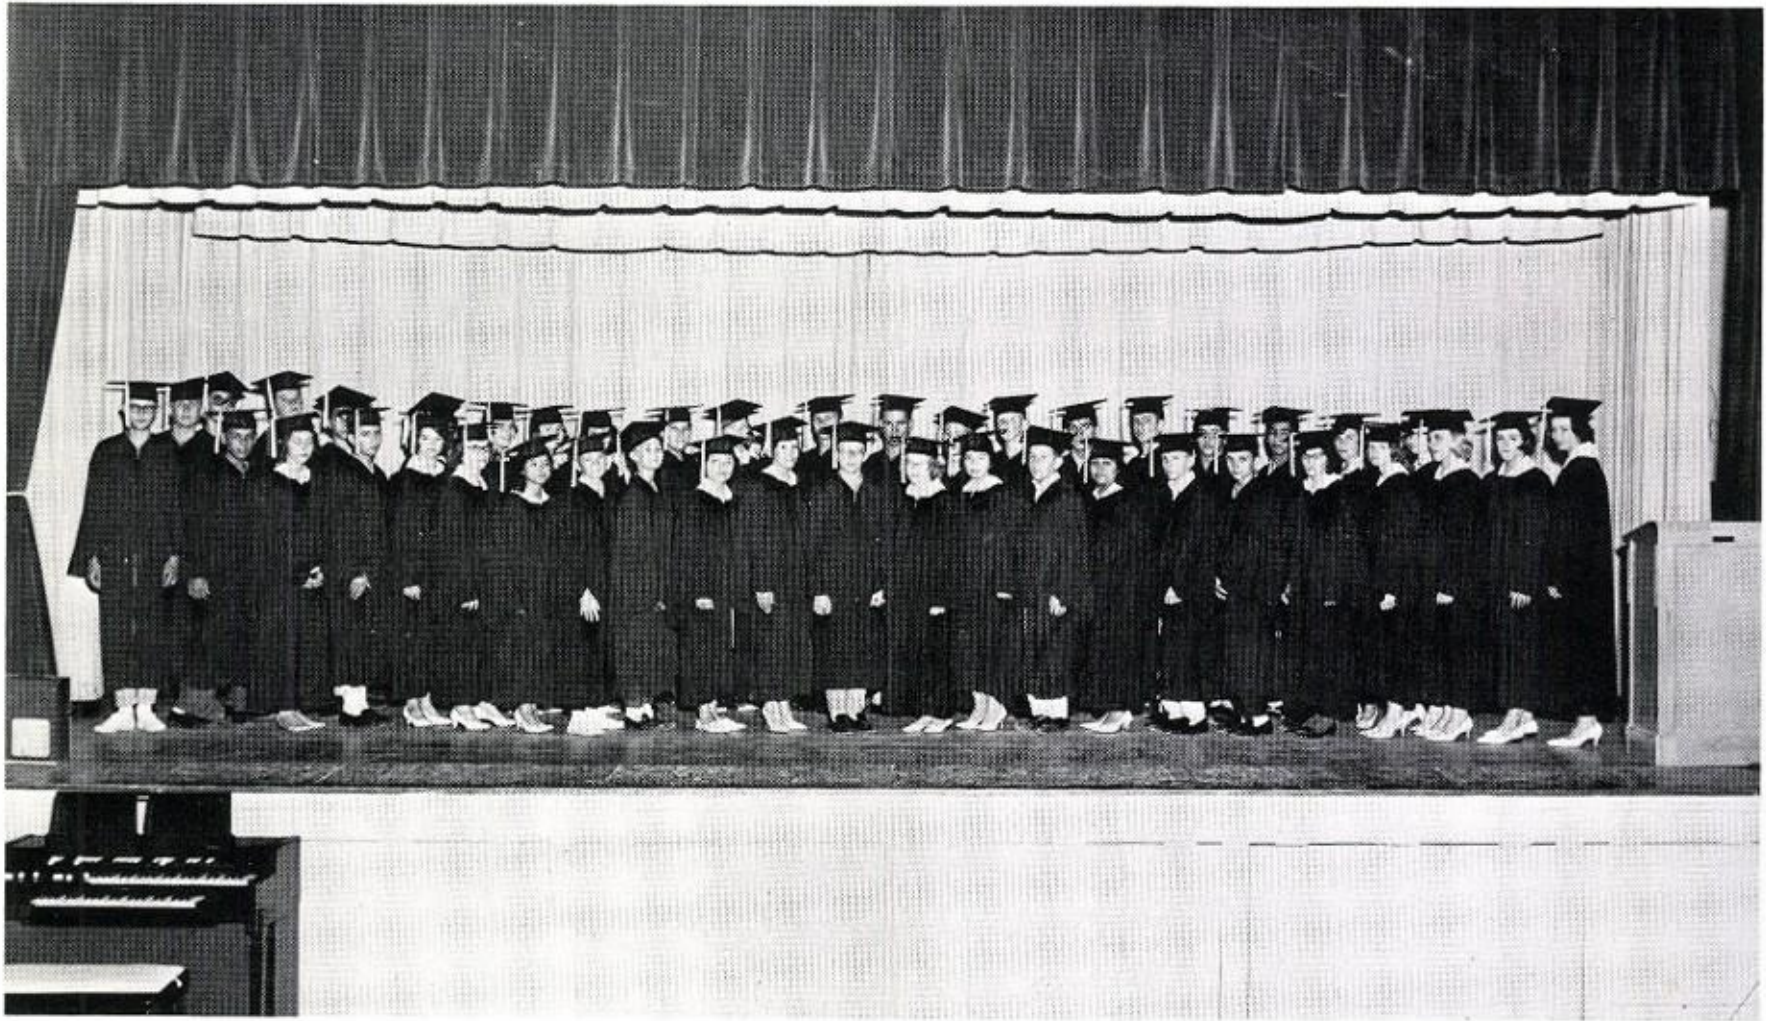

Then the big event of the day--the game. It was cold and windy, but the pep squad and its leaders backed the boys all the way.

Having finished their meal, the Exes again engaged in talking about old times.

Junior High Graduation

The New Deal Junior High School graduates this year were as follows: Anthony Aguilar, William Beaty, Earlean Bradley, Roberta Brown, Jimmy Bush, Erlinda Castro, Dorothy Cox, Maria De Los Santos, Sherry Exum, Modesta Flores, Suzanne Fortenberry, Jesse Freeman, Jimmy Fritzler, Gilbert Garcia, Rose Mary Garcia, Michael Galbraith, Alva Griffis, Joe Gonzales, Charles Hartless, Dennie Hartless, Janice Heald, Danny Henly, Robert Hogan, Monta Isaacs, Dorothy Johnson, Rita Jones, Ernest Kelley, Debby Krause, Elena Marez, Cathy Martin, Diane McDougal, Glen McKinney, Jerry McNeely, Carolyn Neal, Robert Norris, Roger Norton, Blas Olivarez, Solomon Olivarez, Gena Parrish, Drew Poe, Rhonda Randolph, Joe Robbins, Danny Rylant, Joe Sherman, Vicki Showalter, Jerry Stout, Claudia Wlakup, and Judy Winningham.

Parents smiled with pride as their sons and daughters walked across the stage to accept their diplomas. Salutatorian of the class with the second highest average was Joe Robbins, son of Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Robbins. Valedictorian of the class was Suzanne Fortenberry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Billy Fortenberry. Each of the honor students addressed the audience. After the graduation exercises, parents and friends of the class attended a reception at the New Deal Club House. At the reception, a gift was presented to the class sponsors, Mr. Jim Stack and Mr. Gerome Byrd. Mothers of the students had prepared refreshments.

Hard Work and Lots of Energy Needed by ND Employees

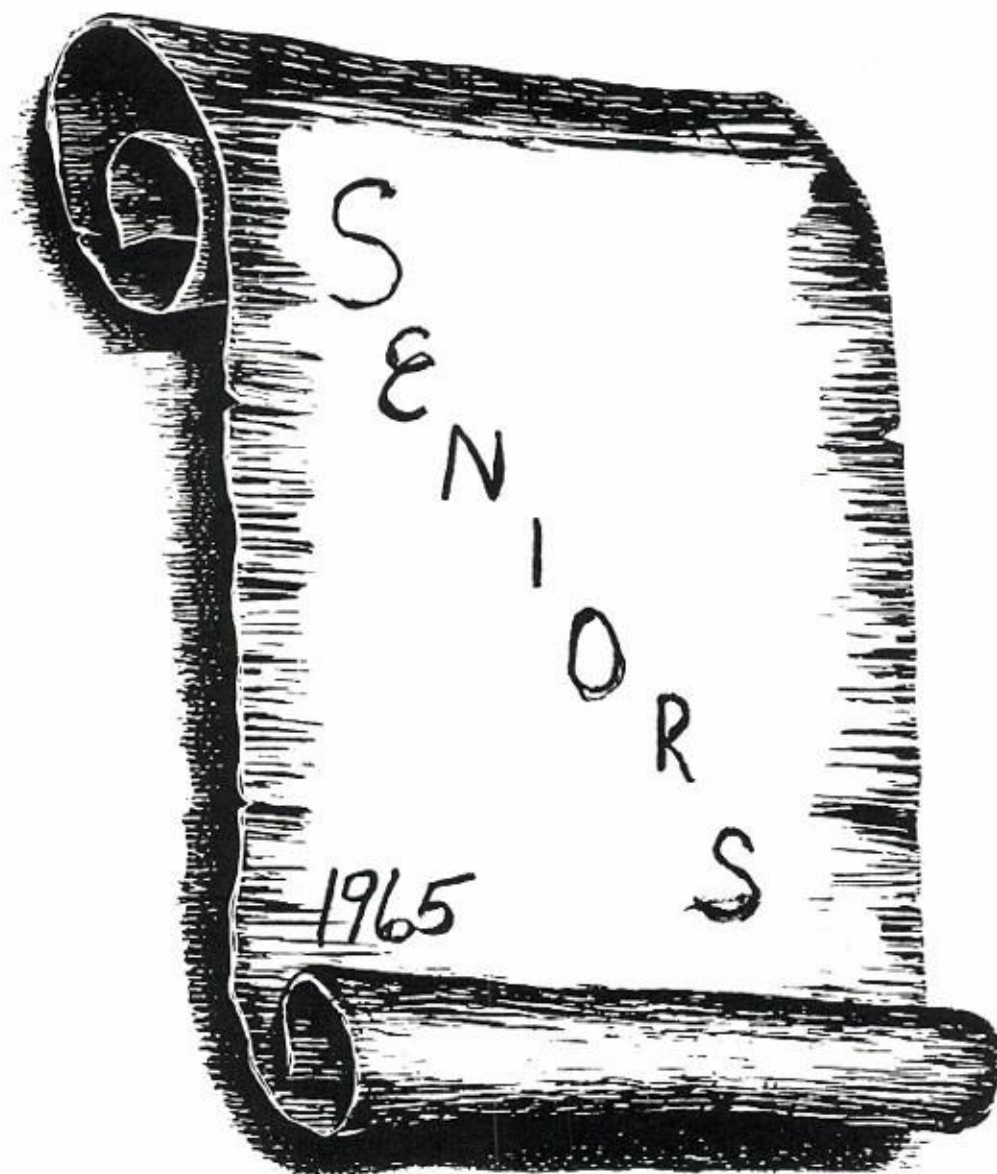

Bill Spicak is doing a fine job in his first year as bus foreman at New Deal. It is his responsibility to keep the bus fleet in good running order.

The lunch room ladies are busy everyday preparing and serving approximately 450 students. They are cheerful most of the time and joke with the students. The staff consists of Left to Right: Mrs. Cowan, Mrs. Norman, Mrs. Brown, Mrs. Shropshire, Mrs. Atkinson, and Mrs. Womack.

Wes Womack, Henry Mead, O. T. Baker, and Sam Ramirez pause for a coke. These men put in a full day, even after school dismisses. They keep the school building and the grounds in tip-top shape.

F.F.A. 61-65; Track Manager 65; Perfect Attendance 63-65; "B" Honor Roll

As graduation nears we see the seniors being measured for their caps and gowns. We hope that they will wear them with pride and achieve the high goal that they are striving for.

Mrs. Irene Delashaw, a first grade teacher at New Deal for 12 years, has just completed her last year in the teaching profession. Under her own power she decided to call it quits on teaching.

Mrs. Delashaw has compiled an outstanding record by teaching the first graders for 44 years. Her kind way with children is to be admired.

Mrs. Delashaw started teaching at New Deal the same year that the Seniors of 1965 started and she is retiring while this same group is graduating. The best of luck to a wonderful teacher and friend.

These three students are the only ones left that started in Mrs. Delashaw's first grade class. These are Sandy Fortenberry, Lester Owen, and Phyllis Reagan.

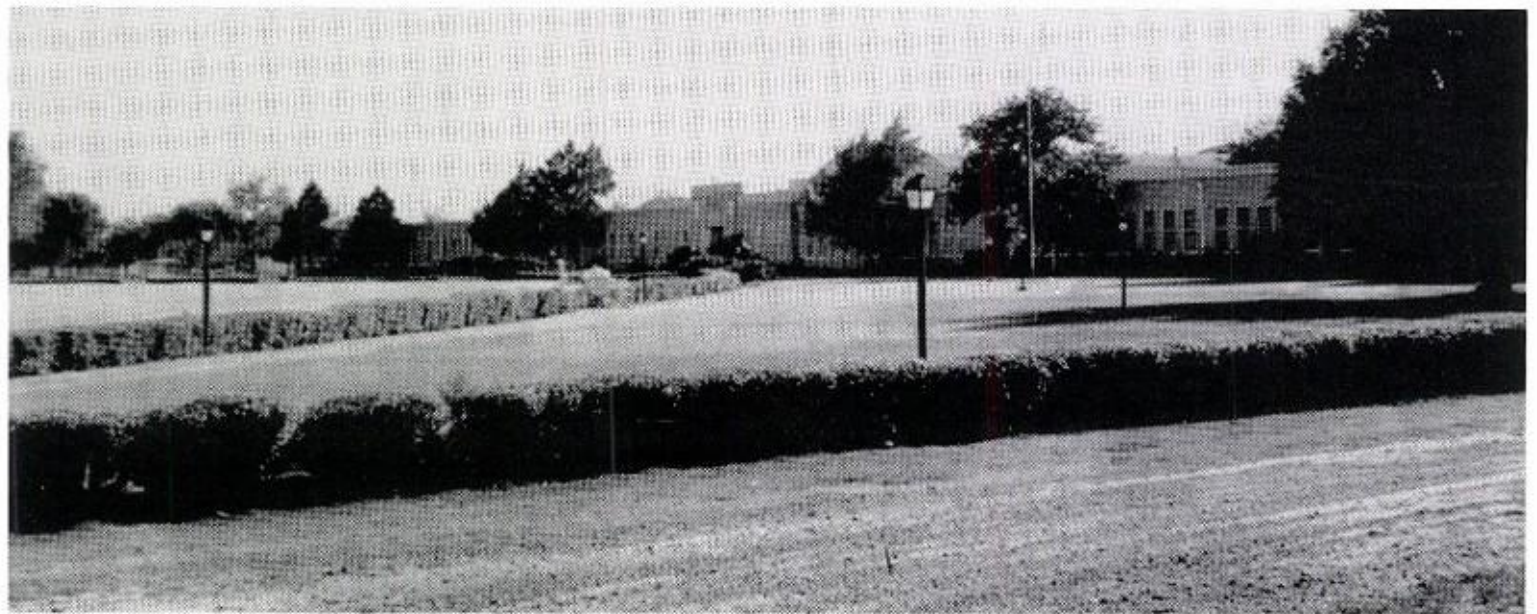

Snapshots

Is this typical of a Senior? I should hope not, but it does seem that Phyl and Linda aren't doing much.

These high school teachers don't seem to be too happy. They usually have a smile for you when you walk down the hall. Maybe we just caught them at a bad time to take this picture.

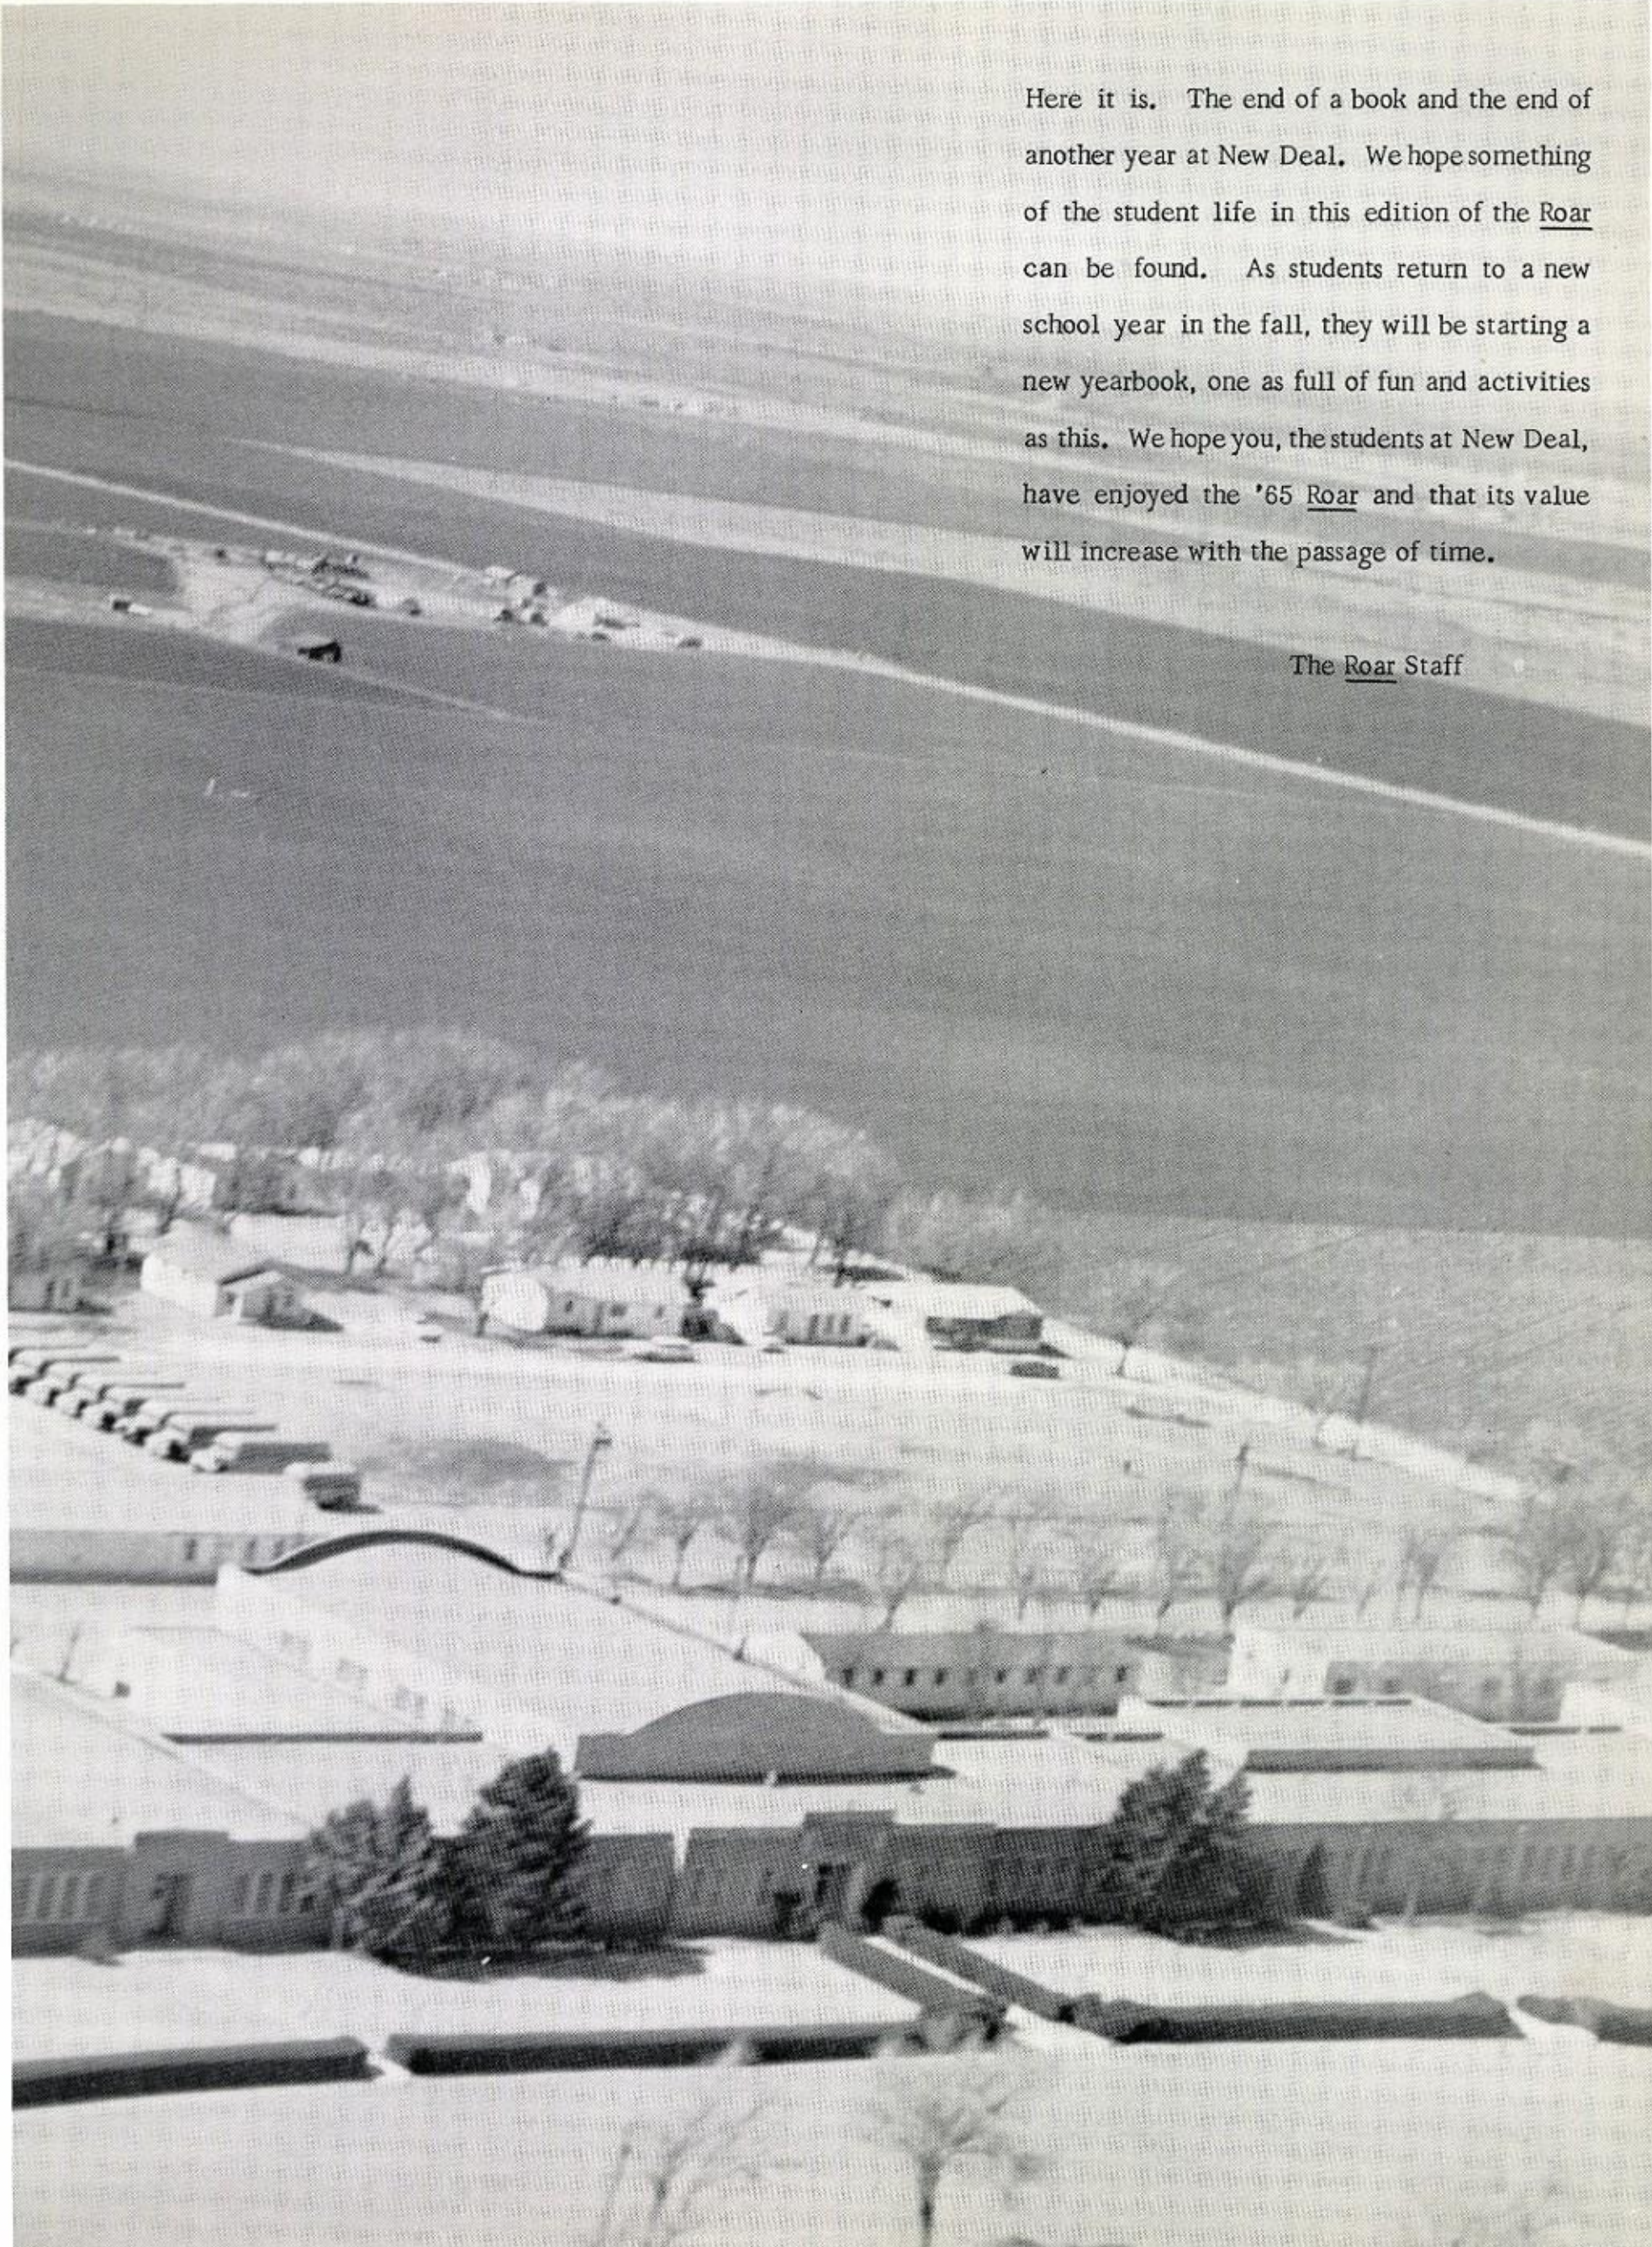

This is a good view of the beautiful lawn that the school has maintained for so many years.

The Juniors are certainly all smiles. Someone must have said something funny.

People don't always act that way in the lunchroom, maybe just a show-off.

Here it is. The end of a book and the end of another year at New Deal. We hope something of the student life in this edition of the Roar can be found. As students return to a new school year in the fall, they will be starting a new yearbook, one as full of fun and activities as this. We hope you, the students at New Deal, have enjoyed the '65 Roar and that its value will increase with the passage of time.
